Sunday of the Divine Mercy

JESUS I TRUST IN YOU

FROM THE PASTOR.....

What Makes Divine Mercy Sunday So Special?

Reconciling with our Father is the biggest benefit of this Feast of Mercy. There are many ways to do so, but what makes this day so extraordinary is that there's a Plenary Indulgence offered by The Church, a special one.

What's The Difference Between A Plenary Indulgence & Going To Confession?

When we are given absolution from our sins through the sacrament of Reconciliation, the priest says, "I absolve you from all of your sins". As an ambassador or representative of Christ himself, we are forgiven in that very moment from our sins. (If you aren't sure who gave them the right to do so, check out John 20:22 where Jesus breathes the Holy Spirit on the Disciples and tells them to go forgive sins). The Church says that after we confess, we are no longer separated from the love of God but depending on what we did, the effects and damage of our sins might still need to be taken care of which is called reparation which we do through prayer, fasting, almsgiving and other works of mercy. If we don't make up for such, then that is what Purgatory is for. Yes, we're reconciled in our relationship with God in confession, however there could still be a temporal punishment where we need to be purified on our way to eternal life in communion with the Saints. A Plenary Indulgence however, can eliminate even the temporal punishment, or time in purgatory. The Plenary Indulgence offered by The Church on Divine Mercy Sunday is unique because rather than being available for others or souls already in purgatory, it's only available for yourself.

How Do We Celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday And Get These Extraordinary Graces?

- Go to confession on or before Divine Mercy Sunday
- Attend Mass and receive the Eucharist
- Participate in the Divine Mercy Chaplet or prayer which would include adoration, praying the Creed, and a devotional prayer to our merciful Lord Jesus such as "Merciful Jesus, I trust in You!"

DIVINE MERY SUNDAY

In the Diary of St. Faustina, Jesus asked that the Feast of Divine Mercy, known today as Divine Mercy Sunday, be preceded by a Novena to The Divine Mercy. We pray the Chaplet of The Divine Mercy each day for a specific intention. Our Lord told St. Faustina, "I desire that during these nine days you bring souls to the fountain of My mercy, that they may draw ... strength and refreshment and whatever grace they need in the hardships of life, and especially at the hour of death" (Diary, 1209).
