LISTEN TO YOUR DREAMS

God visits Solomon in a dream, and the scripture story nowhere tells us that Solomon awoke to have this conversation with God! So, still in his dream, Solomon answers God's question about what he desires most, and God grants his request for wisdom in abundance.

In our waking hours, we are much distracted by work, home, family, traffic, entertainment, and many worries. When we try to think about what we really want out of life, we have trouble even imagining what that might be. But deep inside, our real longings dwell, known to God and to the Holy Spirit. Our dreams, unencumbered by defenses, may hold clues to what our deepest needs are, or what bothers us most. They could be God speaking.

Today's Good News ~Living with Christ

Although Moses may have been the first to break God's commandments in a fit of righteous indignation, I can vouch that he is not the last. Why is it that when I am incensed at the wrongdoing of those around me, I am most prone to violate the very law of love that I am holding over their heads? "Just anger" is an incendiary emotion—it so easily can get away from me and, like a brushfire, quickly take on a life of its own. God's commandments are a gift for our peace, guidelines for a life of love and well-being. When we use them as a moral yardstick to take the measure of our neighbor, we lose sight of their reality: a precious and sacred covenant that God wrote out for us, binding us together with God in an intimate relationship of love and protection. Holy spirit, our Advocate and Counselor, help us love the law of the Lord and honor the commandments as a personal response to God's infinite love. Claire King
