by the Spirit to serve.

“Misericordia: Making Mercy Visible”

Jesus said,
“I say to you,
you are Peter,
and upon this rock
I will build my church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it.”

BE A ROCK

Peter's history as a follower or friend of Jesus is a bit spotty. It might be natural to wonder if Jesus, in giving him the keys to the kingdom, didn't feel a bit like a parent giving a teenager the keys to the family car. But it was at the moment when God's power and presence broke through everything else to raise up Peter's great profession of faith in Christ as Messiah that Jesus chose to establish the bond between the loving, forgiving mercy of heaven and our vocation to be witnesses of that love, mercy, and forgiveness on earth.

Like any parent, Jesus no doubt foresaw the failings, the irresponsible maneuvers or impaired senses, the collisions that the church would be headed for. But, most importantly, he also saw us at that moment as God prefers to see us: capable of manifesting great faith, with a willingness to remain at the feet of Christ to understand what it truly means to be Messiah and Christ. As the letter to the Romans points out to us today, we have not known the mind or the wisdom of God, but God knows us and still chooses to manifest the reign of justice, joy, beauty, and peace through us. Let this be our vocation. Let us always strive to be solid ground on which the church of Jesus Christ can be founded and on which it can continue to be built.

Today's Good News ~Living with Christ

"In every place your faith in God has gone forth, so that we have no need to say anything" (1Thessalonians 1:8). This morning I went to Mass in a nearby convent chapel. The Dominican priest preached eloquently and clearly. The sisters, mostly young, chanted behind us, their rosary beads clattering each time they stood up and sat back down. We were young and old in the congregation, alone and with families. Some joined in the singing and prayer strongly, and others softly, still others softer yet—in their hearts. So long ago the word was spoken, then shared, sounding forth thanks to apostles and disciples: chanted, painted, sculpted, taught, whispered, preached, lived, died for. And here we are. Thanks to going forth, here we are. Lord, that you for faithful, joyful witnesses. May I be one of them. Amy Welborn
