We remember in our prayers all Fathers, especially those intentions placed on the altar.

We pray for foster fathers, step fathers, and fathers by adoption, that they will find true happiness in the mystery of fatherhood and that their love for their children may bind them closer into the perfect love of God.

We pray for those we call father, those who showed us how to throw a ball or cook a meal, those who taught us how to drive and showed mercy upon us for the dents, those who kissed away our hurts, calmed all our fears, and protected us as best they could.

We pray for all fathers and grandfathers, living or dead, those nearby or those distanced by miles, disease, or division, that they all may be embraced and strengthened by the loving arms of God, the Father.

Message from the Pastor:

This weekend we celebrate Father's Day! As we celebrate and honor all Fathers today in a special way let us also pray that God's bountiful blessings will be bestowed upon them always for their unconditional love and guidance and that they will be guided by God's love in the challenges they face in their daily lives.

Today's Gospel from Luke is perhaps one of the most poignant accounts of Jesus. Before this exchange with his disciples, Jesus has already performed many miracles; he cured the possessed man, cured Simon Peter's mother-in-law, cured the leper, taught the multitude about God's love, healed the paralytic, raised the widow's son from death, pardoned the sinful woman, calmed the storm at sea, and many more. He fed the 5,000 people with 5 loaves and 2 fish.

Now, He is in praying in solitude and the disciples are with him. He asks, "Who do the crowds say that I am?" What did He think when the disciples answered: "John the Baptist", "Elijah", or "One of the ancient prophets has arisen?" Then, the Gospel says, He said, "But who do you say that I am?" Did Jesus hope that, after all the miracles and teachings, they would finally understand? Today, we might reflect on that same question that Jesus asks, "Who do you say that I am?" We have the witness of Peter who was the first to reply to Jesus, saying Jesus is "The Christ of God." But when He turns to you and me, how do we respond? Discipleship means continually answering the question that Jesus asks. We can answer in many ways: in prayer, in our words, in our decisions and actions, in our participation in the community of faith, and in all our daily efforts and deeds to share His Good News with others!

Let us remember this prayer for all fathers today as we celebrate them at our family gatherings, barbecues, dinners or those in thought – near or far.

Father's Day Prayer
*Heavenly Father,
you entrusted your Son Jesus,
the child of Mary,
to the care of Joseph, an earthly father.
Bless all fathers
as they care for their families.
Give them strength and wisdom,
tenderness and patience;
support them in the work they have to do,
protecting those who look to them,
as we look to you for love and salvation,
through Jesus Christ our rock and defender.
Amen.*

Have a wonderful week as we begin the first day of summer this Monday!
God Bless You!
Fr. Jacek

Use your cell phone, smart phone, laptop, etc. to get the answer to this month’s question:

“In 1983 Pope John Paul II made sweeping changes in the canonization process. What three steps were adopted?”

Go to www.Catholic.org, click on Catholic online, type in your question and hit Search for the answer.

FYI: The answer to May’s question “Why does the Church choose May as the month to venerate the Virgin Mother Mary?” is:

May is the beginning of Spring which is a sign and symbol of new life. Mary is the mother of the One through whom our New Life has come, Jesus, her son, who is the first born of the New Creation.
