A THANK YOU AND A REQUEST

Please take the time to thank Kathy Cameron for her years of service as coordinator of Eucharistic Ministers. Prayerfully consider taking over the leadership of this important service to our community. Parishioners, especially the homebound and hospitalized, need to know that we cherish this ministry. For more information or to volunteer, contact the Director of Liturgy, Jim Mason at the Parish Office or 254.913.1259. Email him at James.Mason@stmarytempletx.org.

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Today's reading speaks of Jesus as the Good Shepherd who has laid down his life that we might find salvation. As sheep we cannot succeed on our own, but Jesus is with us as the Good Shepherd to give us the guidance and strength to succeed in this life and reach the pastures of eternal life. It is vital for us to recognize that we cannot do this on our own, we need Jesus! In the first reading, Saint Peter tells us that "there is no salvation through anyone else other than Jesus." We cannot save ourselves; we cannot find salvation somewhere else or through anyone else. But we don't have to. Jesus is the Good Shepherd who lays down his life freely, offering it up for you and me that we might have life and salvation in and through him. We do not have to earn it or merit it; we simply have to choose to follow him. Even in our weakness and our helplessness, Jesus loves us, for He is our Good Shepherd. May God bless you all.

Fr. Steve

SECOND COLLECTION

This week's second collection is for the Seminarians and Priest Education and Formation. "The churches have proclaimed their faith in the fulfillment of God's promise: "I will give you shepherds after my own heart" (Jer. 3:15), and they have renewed their pastoral commitment to care for vocations and for the formation of priests - aware that on this depends the future of the Church, her development and her universal mission of salvation." St John Paul II

 VOCATIONS – APRIL 22

STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

To be good stewards we must be good sheperds, willing to lay down our lives for those committed to our care, not mere hired hands who run off, "leaving the sheep to be snatched and scattered by the wolf."

FOCUS ON FAITH FORMATION

Every person is a child of God, because He created all of us. In the Bible, it specifies people who have a relationship with Him because they believe and trust in Him for salvation. The true children of God are people who know about God, know that Jesus died for their sins and believe in Jesus. Unfortunately, there are many people who do not have a relationship with God, do not believe in Him, ignore His message and worship idols of gold or stone. God does not make any one obey Him and will not make them have a relationship with Him, unless they want it. Our faith connects us to God and Jesus. Willingness to believe and trust Jesus to forgive our sins brings us into a relationship with Him. Believing Jesus forgives us and gives us a home in heaven is a big step of faith. We are trusting God with our life forever. If we are willing to trust God and Jesus with our eternal life, we can trust Him for our life here on earth. stepsoffaitfordeaf.org
