Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Jesus reminds us that if our lives are built only upon power, influence, prestige or achievement, they will ultimately come tumbling down. At the conclusion of today’s Gospel, Jesus gives us a clue about what leads to true satisfaction. As he speaks to his disciples, he reminds us that the ultimate strength in our lives comes from a living and loving relationship with him and with the people of his Church. If Jesus and the life to which he calls us become the central focus of our everyday living, then we live as members of his family; we are his brother and sisters. Like younger siblings, we have the opportunity to look up to Jesus, to emulate his ways of selfless life and love, to cooperate with his grace in order to bring peace and mercy more firmly into our world. What a joy that Jesus teaches us by word and example to live our lives with his life and love, as both foundation and cornerstone. As you and I begin to enter into a change in our lives; as I move to another parish and you receive a new pastor may we remember that Christ is the foundation of our life and parish. Trusting in the Holy Spirit and the words of our Lord, “I will be with you always”, may we embrace God’s plan for us in the mission to which he has called each of us. May God bless you all.

Fr. Steve

FOCUS ON FAITH FORMATION

In the Gospel, Jesus asks the question, "Who are my mother and my brothers?" and redefines the real family of God. "Here are my mother and my brothers. For whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother." MK 3:34-35

Jesus is not discounting his Mother Mary, but expanding the circle of God's family to include all believers. Those who develop an intimate relationship with God and are obedient to His will are a part of His family. By doing so, we are invited by Jesus to follow him and join him on the journey home to the Father's house in Heaven. It is up to us in the way we live and the choices we make if we have accepted the invitation to the journey.
