THE PARISH OFFICE WILL BE CLOSED WEDNESDAY FOR INDEPENDENCE DAY. HAVE A
SAFE, FUN CELEBRATION WITH FAMILY & FRIENDS!

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

This past week we celebrated the solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, Apostles. They are well known to us from the Gospels, the Acts of the Apostles and the New Testament letters; they are revered and honored for any number of reasons. They were models of inspiration and courage; of determination and a willingness to come when the Lord called and to go where the Lord led. They were perfectly imperfect humans who show us that human weakness and imperfection are not barriers to salvation. Both Peter and Paul were martyred in Rome during the reign of Emperor Nero sometime around the year 67 A.D. The Emperor Nero was carrying out a terrible persecution against the Christians at the time, and both Paul and Peter had to know the danger they faced in preaching the Gospel and building the Church. Yet they did not falter.

This is not to suggest that we are called to physical martyrdom, although many still are in today's world. It is to propose that, since God does not put limits on those he chooses in terms of what we can accomplish in His name, then neither should we put limits on ourselves. We too, are perfectly imperfect, as were Peter and Paul. Like Peter and Paul, we can have faith that, if we compete well, if we finish the race, if we keep the faith, we too will have a crown of righteousness awaiting us. By grace we were chosen; in grace we respond. May we always be open to where the grace may lead us. May we always lift one another up in prayer.

Fr. Steve

Dianna Hardin and family would like to express their appreciation to the Bereavement Committee and everyone who helped with the funeral of James Hardin. It was a special blessing.

JOB OPENING ~ PARISH OFFICE

We are in need of a full-time front office administrative assistant. Previous office experience required. A detailed description will be on the church website www.stmarytempletx.org or visit Job Openings on austindiocese.org. If you have any questions, call the Director of Operations, Becky Theisen at 254.773.4541.

Eucharistic Ministers

“Christ has no body now but yours. No hands, no feet on earth but yours. Yours are the eyes through which he looks compassion on this world. Yours are the feet with which he walks to do good. Yours are the hands through which he blesses all the world. Yours are the hands, yours are the feet, yours are the eyes, you are his body. Christ has no body now on earth but yours.”

– St. Teresa of Ávila

The red, white and blue arrangement this weekend celebrates the 66th wedding anniversary of Gene & Betty Engbrock. God has blessed you and all of us with the witness of your love and commitment!

Summer Bible Study

Every Tuesday through July 31st Regina Caeli Room
Afternoon session 1:30pm ~ Evening session 6:00pm
Each session is stand-alone. No cost!

What better way to be the hands and feet of Jesus than to take the Eucharist out into the parish and our community? More Extraordinary Ministers are needed to help serve during mass and/or visit the homebound. Being an Extraordinary Minister does not obligate you to do both! Please prayerfully consider serving – and please pray for those who are already serving. Call Nancy Glover if you would like to join our efforts – 254-223-0767.

FOCUS ON FAITH FORMATION

God has given all of us gifts and charisms, both as individuals and as groups. Paul is appealing to the Corinthians, who are known for excellence in whatever they do, to use their “excellence” to benefit others through generous giving (grace). Paul is not asking them to give so much that they are burdened by it, but to give now when they have abundance and can satisfy the people’s needs. Then, when the people have abundance, they will satisfy the Corinthian’s needs. Fairness and equality are the guidelines for each individual’s contribution. Therefore, our love and generosity towards others is the measure of God’s generosity towards us.

Basic Faith Formation Classes

St. Mary Parish Dr. Geri Telepak, presenter
9:00 am – 3:00 pm Saturday:
