FOCUS ON FAITH FORMATION

Paul urges us to, “live in a manner worthy of the call you have received.” We all have been called to follow God and to be a part of the Body of Christ; therefore, we are all called to travel on the same road in the same direction. Through selfless acts of love, God wants us to consistently reach out to others and to help one another on our faith journeys. As we walk through life, we are constantly faced with moral issues and moral decisions. We need to base our actions and decisions on what will keep us faithful to God Our Father and to one another. We need to respect and cooperate with each another and work through difficulties, misunderstandings, hurt feelings and irritations. God’s peace functions as a bond where there is mutual love and respect. For it is through one Spirit, one Lord and one God that we will stay united.
