Thank you for your generosity to your parish!

LITTLE SISTERS of the POOR

The Little Sisters of the poor will speak briefly at all masses today about their work with the elderly poor.

2018 HUMANAЕ VITAE 50TH OBSERVANCE

A coalition of pro-life and Catholic organization is conducting activities to observe the 50th Anniversary of Humanae Vitae (HV), which occurs on this Wednesday, July 25, 2018. This document reaffirmed the truth and beauty of the Church's teachings regarding married love and the vast harms of contraception.

You are invited to attend a Humanae Vitae at 50 presentation on Wednesday, July 25, 2018 at 7:00PM in Upper McShain Hall at the Malvern Retreat House. This event features a screening of the newly released 90 minute movie, Sexual Revolution.

There is no registration fee, but a free will offering will be taken. For additional information, visit: www.HV50Philly.com or call 215-886-8760.

We are in need of Eucharistic Ministers to bring the Eucharist to our HOMEBOUND parishioners. Volunteers would be members of a team, who work in rotation visiting our homebound. You would be assigned on an average of once a month to visit the shut-ins on a Saturday or Sunday. *Please contact the rectory if you think you would like to be part of this much needed ministry.*¹⁰⁷⁻¹

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS FALL 2018 – EASTER 2019

R.C.I.A. is the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. Through this process, we hope to be able to meet the needs of the following people 16 years of age or older:

Have you been worshipping with us, but never officially took the step to become Catholic?

Have you been a Catholic all your life, but never celebrated all the Sacraments of Initiation: Baptism, Holy Eucharist and Confirmation?

Have you been away from the church, returned and would like to know more about the Catholic Church?

If any of these questions apply to you, you might want to consider participating in the R.C.I.A. process. Or, if you know of anyone who could answer yes to any of these questions, perhaps you could extend an invitation to them.

If you are interested and have questions, or would like to register, please call the rectory office at 610-497-3340. R.C.I.A. classes are held one evening each week from 7:00PM until 8:30PM. The classes begin in October and end at the Easter Vigil.

There is no cost for the R.C.I.A. program and all materials will be provided.

Most are familiar with the scriptural quote from Psalm 23, “The Lord is my shepherd. There is nothing I shall want.” This passage serves as the Responsorial Psalm on this 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time of two key ideas: that we must place our trust in the Lord, and that we inherit life from our Good Shepherd, Jesus Christ.

In our second reading, part of Paul’s statement, “For he (Christ) is our peace, he who made both one and broke down the dividing wall of enmity, through his flesh, abolishing the law with its commandments and legal claims,” is saying essentially the Lordship of Jesus is greater than any difference you may feel you have with others – that Jesus is our Savior and Shepherd.

In the Gospel Reading from Mark, the idea of shepherding lies at the heart. “When he (Jesus) disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.” He began to feed them with the Word of God. As we are fed with the readings at mass. These are the Words of the Lord. He is our shepherd. We are His sheep.

As always, Jesus teaches us a valuable lesson about stewardship through today’s readings. To the Lord, the needs of others were more important than His own. When we share our time, our talents, and our treasure, we are not only following our Good Shepherd, we are also living His Gospel call to shepherd others by giving of ourselves.
