Christmas Bazaar

Sunday, November 19th 2017 9:30AM – 4:30PM

The bazaar is a great parish tradition and an important fund raiser. To ensure its success we need the help of friends and neighbors to secure items for the flea market tables, and raffle prizes, baked goods, and monetary donations, as well as to volunteer to help prepare, decorate, and sell on the day of the event.

Ideas?

Flea Market -

Your trash is someone's treasure. Especially popular are crystal and china, picture frames, table linens, collectibles, handbags, jewelry, and toys. No clothing please. Simplify your life and clean your closets and shelves before the holidays...Your donations may be brought to the Parish Office 406 E. 80th Street, Attention Mike Ward. Please indicate your contact info on any donated items.

Raffle Prizes -

Gift cards to restaurants, stores, or coffee shops. Theatre or movie tickets. Tickets to sporting events. Fancy groceries like olive oil, balsamic vinegar, tea, coffee, jam, nuts, cookies, and chocolates can be bundled to make a terrific gift basket. Luxury items like new handbags, scarves, and gloves. Are you crafty? Think about donating something that reflects your talent: a painting, jewelry, ceramics, a quilt, a hand-knit, -crocheted, or -embroidered item. Sports or theatre memorabilia. New or almost-new Lenox, Lladro, Hummel, Waterford, Beleek, Royal Doulton, Tiffany, or other beautiful and valuable pieces you may own or have received as gifts and can't use. Even better if they're in the original box. If not, they might work for the Flea Market.

Volunteers -

Can you help decorate and set up on November 18th? Can you bake or buy something delicious, wrap it beautifully, and donate it to the bakery table? Can you solicit local businesses for gift cards or other donations for the raffles? Can you help at one of the tables for a couple of hours on the day of the bazaar? Would you like to take a table to sell your crafts or know someone who would?

“There are different kinds of gifts, but the same Spirit distributes them. There are different kinds of service, but the same Lord. There are different kinds of working, but in all of them and in everyone it is the same

God at work.”

– 1 Corinthians 12:4-6

Nothing is too small. Anything you can do is meaningful and greatly appreciated.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

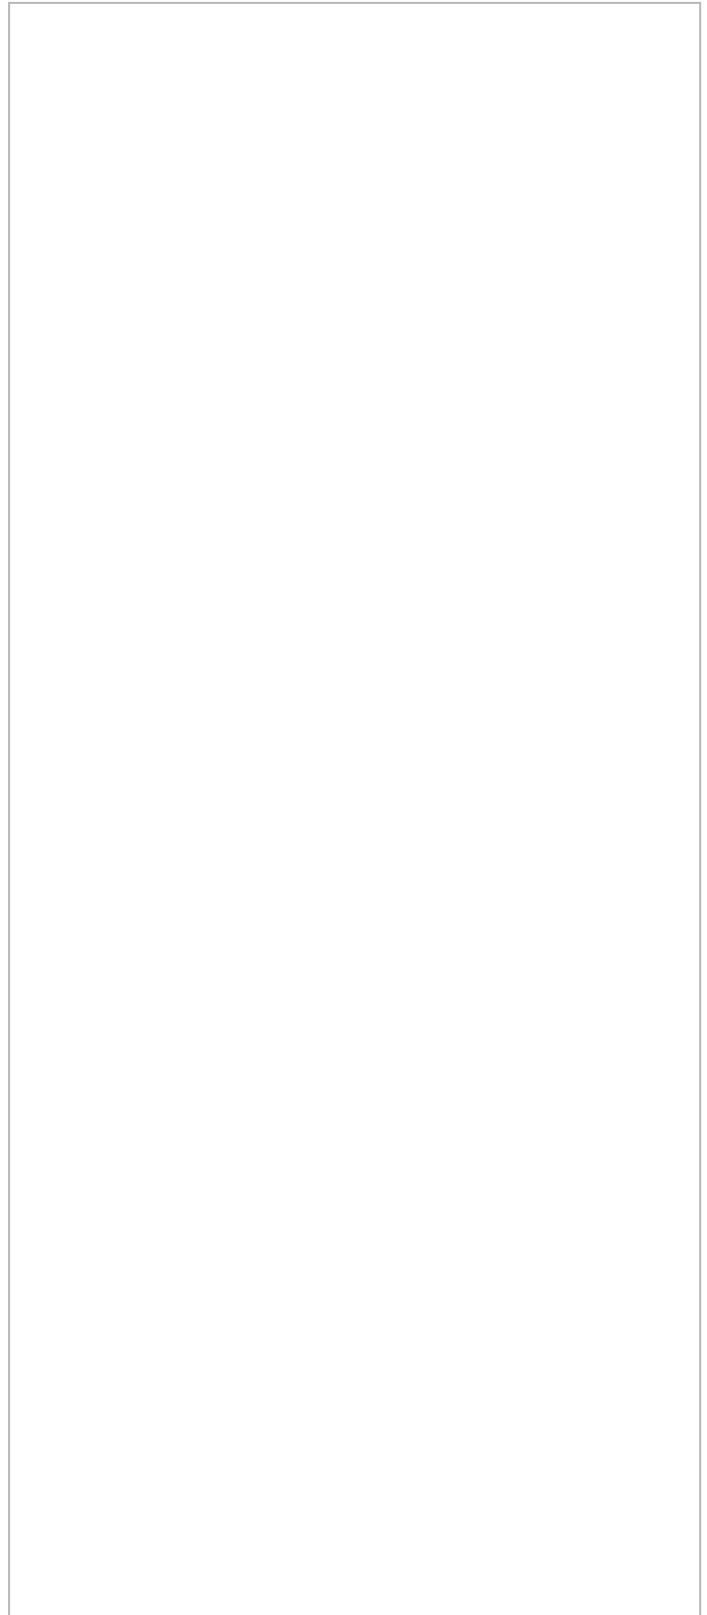

Before long, as we've seen, the four newly constructed Eucharistic Prayers became two. The old Roman Canon faded away into relative disuse after 1600 unbroken years, sometimes heard only at Christmas Midnight Mass or the Easter Vigil. The new Eucharistic Prayer IV, at least in its English form, grates a bit on most hearers, and besides is meant only for Ordinary Time. The reconstruction of the ancient prayer of Hippolytus, Eucharistic Prayer II, is the most familiar, but its brevity sometimes creates an imbalance with the Liturgy of the Word. No wonder that as soon as the creative juices began to flow at the Vatican, people worldwide were trying their hands at new prayers.

In 1967, even before the final shape of the new Mass was announced, bishops were asking to adapt that celebration for the needs of children. They wanted to clarify what ought to happen when large numbers of children are at Mass: what could be adapted, omitted, or shortened. Experimentation had already begun. Separate Liturgies of the Word for children were by this time commonplace in Holland and elsewhere in Europe. Catechists were saying that many of our liturgical forms were too complex for the children in their charge, and priests were making adaptations on their own. Clearly, the Vatican had to take this seriously.
