We were able to provide gifts for seventy five of the residents. What a joy it was for them to see the pretty bags being delivered for them. Your generosity made such an impact on the patients that were able to appreciate the gifts (Many others suffer from dementia but still are in need of basic necessities). Thanks to everyone that helped to spread some Christmas cheer to those less fortunate. Extra appreciation for those that took multiple angels. Also thanks to the groups and organizations that participated. Without your help this act of charity could not have been accomplished." Gratefully, Melinda Schneider and Joyce Vieth.

CARDINAL MERCIER'S PRAYER TO THE HOLY SPIRIT.

I am going to reveal to you a secret of sanctity and happiness. For five minutes every day quieten your imagination close your eyes to everything visible and your ears to all external sounds and withdraw into the sanctuary of your baptized soul which is the temple of the Holy Spirit. There speak to the Holy Spirit and say:

O Holy Spirit soul of my soul, I adore you. Enlighten me, guide me, strengthen and console me. Tell me what I ought to do and command me to do it. I promise to submit to everything that you ask of me and to accept all that you allow to happen to me. Just show me what is your will.

If you do this your life will be happy and serene. Even in the midst of troubles you will experience great consolation for grace will be given to strengthen and help you to cope with every difficulty.

St. Teresa of Avila

Christ has no body now on earth but yours; yours are the only hands with which he can do his work, yours are the only feet with which he can go about the world, yours are the only eye through which his compassion can shine forth upon a troubled world. Christ has no body on earth but yours.

ACCEPTING GOD'S WAY FOR ME, I OFFER MYSELF WITH THIS PRAYER OF BLESSED JOHN HENRY NEWMAN:

God has created me to do him some definite service. He has committed some work to me that he has not committed to another. I have my mission. I may never know it in this life, but I shall be told it in the next. I am a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons. He has not created me for naught. I shall do good; I shall do his work. I shall be an angel of peace, a preacher of truth in my own place, while not intending it if I do but keep his commandments. Therefore, I will trust him; whatever I am, I can never be thrown away. If I am in sickness, my sickness may serve him; in perplexity, my perplexity may serve him. If I am in sorrow, my sorrow may serve him. He does nothing in vain. He knows what he is about. He may take away my friends. He may throw me among strangers. He may make me feel desolate, make my spirits sink, hide my future from me. Still, he knows what he is about.

THE FOLLOWING IS MERTON'S "PRAYER OF ABANDONMENT":

My Lord God, I have no idea where I am going. I do not see the road ahead of me. I cannot know for certain where it will end. Nor do I really know myself, and the fact that I think I am following your will does not mean that I am actually doing so. But I believe that the desire to please you does in fact please you, and I hope that I will never do anything apart from that desire. And I know that if I do this you will lead me by the right road although I may know nothing about it. Therefore will I trust you always, though I may seem to be lost and in the shadow of death, I will not fear, for you are ever with me, and you will never leave me to face my perils alone.
