FR. PETE:

Advent Parish Mission begins on Sunday, December 9, 7:00 p.m. at the Church. It will continue thru Thursday, December 13, each evening at 7:00 p.m.

We are very fortunate to have Fr. Wade Menezes of the Fathers of Mercy come to us. Fr. Wade can often be seen on EWTN discussing a variety of topics. He is quite the gifted speaker.

The overall theme of the Parish Mission is taken from St. Paul's Letter to the Philippians 2:12, "Work Out Your Salvation!" Please make every effort to attend all or as many of the evening sessions as possible.

Fr. Wade will speak on the following topics:

"Be Faithful to Daily Duty"

"Be Other-Centered"

"Understand the Reality of Vice and Virtue"

"Practice and Live the Sacraments"

"Live a Trinitarian Spirituality"

Heads up...Mary Ann will be out of the office next week. There will not be a bulletin next Sunday.

Finance Council Members and Trustees:

We will meet on Tuesday, November 27, 5:00 p.m. at the rectory.

Fall decorations are scheduled to be taken down on Wednesday, November 28 after the morning Mass. Any and all help is greatly appreciated. Time to get the Church ready for Advent.

Social Committee will meet on Thursday, November 29, 10:00 a.m. at the rectory.

This is the group that plans and coordinates the various parish dinners. If you would like to help with this, please come to the meeting.

Masses for the Feast of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary. The Masses for this Holy Day of Obligation will be on Friday, December 7, at 6:00 p.m. and Saturday, December 8, at 8:00 a.m.

Please remember that if you attend Mass on Saturday morning, that DOES NOT mean you have fulfilled your Sunday obligation! Nice try, though!

Time to make the wreathes for the Church!

It has been a long tradition at St. John's that parishioners hand make all the wreathes for the inside of the Church. This is a wonderful family activity. If you have never made a wreath before, no problem! We have folks that will guide you and your children. It is a wonderful way of spending time together as a family and meeting others.

We will gather at the parish hall on Saturday, December 8, at 9:00 a.m. right after the Holy Day Mass.

Men of St. Joseph's prayer group gathers on Thursday mornings at 6:30 a.m. at the rectory. All men in the parish are welcome! If you are new to the parish please know that you are most welcome to join.

We begin promptly at 6:30 a.m. and end promptly at 7:30 a.m.

There are no fees, no meetings, no expectations other than you come and support the parish in your prayers.

The parish provides the Magnificat booklet we use for Morning Prayer. We discuss the Scripture readings and meditation for the day.

And yes...coffee is definitely served at that hour!

An Advent Meditation to help you get ready for this wonderful season. The following comes from Fr. Alfred Delp, S.J, who was a German Jesuit priest that was condemned to death by the Nazis in Berlin. He was executed in 1945.

Unless we have been shocked to our depths at ourselves and the things we are capable of, as well as at the failing of humanity as a whole, we cannot possibly understand the full import of Advent.

If the whole message of the coming of God, of the day of salvation, of approaching redemption, is to seem more than a divinely inspired legend or a bit of poetic fiction two things must be accepted unreservedly.

First, that life is both powerless and futile in so far as by itself it has neither purpose nor fulfillment. It is powerless and futile within its own range of existence and also as a consequence of sin. To this must be added the rider that life clearly demands both purpose and fulfillment.

Secondly, it must be recognized that it is God's alliance with humanity, His being on our side, ranging Himself with us, that corrects this state of meaningless futility. It is necessary to be conscious of God's decision to enlarge the boundaries of His own supreme existence by condescending to share ours for the overcoming of sin.

All we have to rely on is the fact that these promises have been given and that they will be kept.

God helps us to find ourselves and then to get away from ourselves, back to Him.

CCW LADIES – cookies wanted for the Gray Ladies Christmas Cookie distribution to the community shut-ins on December 20! Please drop your cookies off during CCD time on Dec. 19 and they will be assembled the next morning, Thursday, Dec. 20. Contact Claudia Elliot with questions, 620-0850.

CCW LADIES' progressive dinner to be held on Sunday, Dec. 16 at the home of Arnette Tiller, 22 Bobcat Dr beginning at 4:30pm. Appetizers, main course and desserts will all be at this one home. Please contact Lori Zink, CCW President, at 620-5113 with what you will bring.

CHRISTMAS FLOWERS in memory of loved ones – We have 40 6-inch red poinsettias for $21.00; 6 6-inch white poinsettias for $21.00; 8 8-inch poinsettias for $39.50 and 4 8-9inch ivy for $32.50. Please call the rectory (in December/in two weeks) or stop by with your request, payment and who you are remembering with this gift.

KNIGHTS' OF COLUMBUS meeting on Tuesday, November 27 at 7:30pm in the parish hall basement.

CCW meeting on Tuesday, December 4 at 12 noon to discuss holiday activities.

HAPPY ADVENT beginning on Sunday, December 2! Fr. Pete will again be saying Mass in the missions. This week Kaycee, St. Hubert's.
