FR. PETE:

A heartfelt message from Carol Gagliano:

"A huge thank you to everyone who helped decorate the week before VBS and cleaned up the week after, especially Mary Blaine, Carleen Cosner, Priscilla Delgado, Patsy Esponda, Will and Grace Finkle, Nancy Gillespie, Honey Harriet, Ashley Hunkins McCoy and Keni Kae Michelena. Blessings on Priscilla Delgado for making the beautiful crosses and for stepping in at the last minute to do music. She is awesome!

Activity leaders, Mary Blaine, Carleen Cosner, Priscilla Delgado, Ashton Esponda, Patsy Esponda, Alberta Escosz, Nancy Gillespie, Bella Johnson, Lori Johnson, Jill Mills, Brandi Sullivan, Patty Tass, and all of our middle / high school Crew Leaders made the week a huge success!

We had about 80 kids involved and learning about the many times that Jesus rescues!

Also, thank you to all who lent a "helping hand" with supplies and / or monetary donations. They were very much appreciated.

Another great VBS in the books!"

A reflection on the Eucharist by St. Peter

Julian Eymard. Originally ordained as a diocesan priest, St. Peter Eymard chose to join the Marist order. He was a powerful advocate for Eucharistic Adoration for all: poor laborers many of whom never received the Eucharist, the uneducated, and clergy. He gives all the following advice: "Belong entirely to God through love, entirely to your neighbor through a gracious character, entirely to the divine Eucharist by the offering and sacrifice of your whole self. Bear with yourself in the patience of our Lord." He passed into eternal life in 1868.

Congratulations to Andee Schueler and Paul Sherman. Andee and Paul were married on Saturday afternoon at an outdoor Liturgy of the Word at the Brinton Museum. May God grant them many happy years!

A meditation on the Feast of Corpus Christi by Archbishop Luis Maria Martinez, the first Primate of Mexico. He entered eternal life in 1956.

The Humanity of Jesus has remained with us in the Holy Eucharist; in that mystery of love Jesus accomplishes His unparalleled marvels in souls, and all operations of grace through the other sacraments are irradiations of that mystery, which in the Church is the center not only of her worship, but of her life and sanctity.

The Holy Spirit and the Eucharist have Divine connections; both mysteries are fountains of purity and of life, but not two separated fountains; united by an inexpressible harmony, they form but one and the same fountain.

Therefore, although the Sacrament of Love was instituted on the eve of the Passion, it was not dispensed in the Church until Pentecost. On that day the heavenly fountain, united with that of earth, would pour throughout the world the holy inundation of purity; when the Holy Spirit, the eternal Perfecter, would complete all that Jesus had established, which, like holy seeds, needed to be watered by power from on high in order to germinate.

The Church, having a profound sense of Divine things, celebrates the feast of the Eucharist soon after the solemnity of Pentecost, intertwining in the Liturgy the mysteries that are intertwined in the designs of God.

Someone has said that a single surge of either love or of suffering can save the world; the Holy Spirit and the Eucharist envelop the world in those two waves because the Holy Spirit and the Eucharist both come from Calvary and they extend upon the earth the empire of the cross formed with love and suffering.
