FR. PETE:

A meditation for the coming week by St. Gregory of Nyssa, bishop.

The life of the Christian has three distinguishing aspects: deeds, words and thoughts. Thought comes first, then words, since our words express openly the interior conclusions of the mind. Finally, after thoughts and words, comes action, for our deeds carry out what the mind has conceived. So, when one of these results in our acting or speaking or thinking, we must make sure that all our thoughts, words and deeds are controlled by the Divine ideal, the revelation of Christ. For then our thoughts, words and deeds will not fall short of the nobility of their implications.

What then must we do, we who have been found worthy of the name of Christ? Each of us must examine his thoughts, words and deeds, to see whether they are directed toward Christ or are turned away from Him. This examination is carried out in various ways. Our deeds or our thoughts or our words are not in harmony with Christ if they issue from passion. They then bear the mark of the enemy who smears the pearl of the heart with the lime of pain, dimming and even destroying the luster of the precious stone.

On the other hand, if they are free from and untainted by every passionate inclination, they are directed toward Christ, the author and source of peace. He is like a pure, untainted stream. If you draw from Him the thoughts in your mind and the inclinations of your heart, you will show a likeness to Christ, your source and origin, as the gleaming water in a jar resembles the flowing water from which it was obtained.

For the purity of Christ and the purity that is manifest in our hearts are identical. Christ's purity, however, is the fountainhead; ours has its source in Him and flows out of Him. Our life is stamped with the beauty of His thought. The inner and the outer man are harmonized in a kind of music. The mind of Christ is the controlling influence that inspires us to moderation and goodness in our behavior. As I see it, Christian perfection consists in this: sharing the titles which express the meaning of Christ's name, we bring out this meaning in our minds, our prayers and our way of life.

A reminder to all who minister in the CCD program, Confirmation program, to the sick at the nursing homes.....if it is your turn to update your background check and safe environment training please do so as soon as possible. Mary Ann has worked hard to identify and contact those who need to get these tasks done by July so these people can have their documentation renewed for the next five years. If this is not done, you will not be able to serve. If you have any questions please call Mary Ann at the parish office 684-7268. She will be more than happy to help you.

Mary Ann is now working on identifying the next group that will have to renew their documentation.

We want to stay ahead of this and your cooperation is essential.

Thank you.

All those who DO NOT have their background checks updated may NOT minister with youth or the elderly until a background check is done.

Many thanks to all who helped with the parish picnic last Sunday. The food was great as was the company!

Many thanks again to Honey Harriet. Honey was the one who several years ago spearheaded the Coffee and Donuts hospitality after the Sunday morning Masses. Honey has chosen to step aside from that ministry. It is now left to others to offer it. It is my understanding that Mr. and Mrs. Fitzsimmons will help for the next few weeks and then Mr. and Mrs. Ridgeway. After that...who knows? If this ministry of hospitality is important to you and you wish to help, please call the Parish Office 684-7268.

Eucharistic Ministers and Lectors. Sig- up sheets for your ministry for the months of July and August can be found at the front entrance of the Church.

Update on the Living and Giving in Christ Campaign:

Parish	Goal	Pledged	Paid
St. John	$56,934	$17,161	$14,538
St. Mary	997	300	300
St. Hubert	944	937	757

Just a reminder.....This hasn't happened for quite some time but I recently received a letter that had no return address. I opened it and, as is my practice, I immediately looked for a name. Not seeing one I threw the letter out without reading it. If a person does not have the integrity to put his or her name and address to a letter then I will not waste my time with it.

“Fr. Pete...Why do some Masses offer the Precious Blood and others don’t?” If people do not sign up to help distribute the Precious Blood, then It cannot be offered. Some think that chalices of wine should be consecrated and folks will simply come up. No. Such ministry has to be intentional, not accidental. If you do not serve as a minister of the Precious Blood, please consider doing so. Training is very short and simple and you can sign up for a weekend Mass that fits your scheduling needs. If interested please call Fr. Pete at the Parish Office. Thank you.

“Fr. Pete...Some visitors asked why there weren’t any altar servers.” I give the servers the summer months off. Why? I see no point trying to arrange schedules during the summer months. Servers are welcome to volunteer if they wish and sometimes, they do. They will resume their duties when school starts.

CCW PROGRESSIVE DINNER to be held Wednesday, July 10 at the home of Arnette Tiller at 5pm. Please bring an appetizer, salad, rolls, dessert or beverage. Call Lori Zink to RSVP, 620-5113 or Mary Ann Cummins, 620-9656. All women of the parish are welcome 😊 Please RSVP by July 8!

GARAGE CLEANING! Getting “treasurers” out of Fr. Pete’s garage. If you want some of this, you are welcome to take what is in the parking lot by the shed.

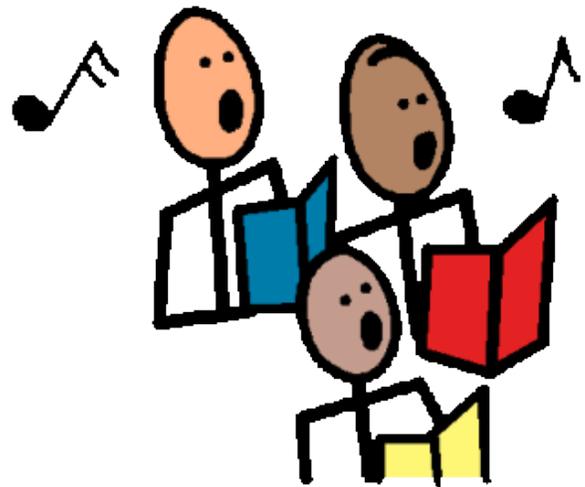

WCCW (Wyoming Council of Catholic Women) convention is in Casper, Wyoming on Sunday, September 22 and Monday, September 23, 2019. Plan now to attend.

Registration fee is $95. Ramkota Hotel is the venue as well as Our Lady of Fatima Church. Several breakout sessions will be Sunday afternoon after a 10:30am Mass with Bishop Steven. Several speakers will present during the 2 days.

SHERIDAN DEANERY CCW FALL meeting will be in Buffalo in early October. No details yet on a date.
