Now and at the Hour of my Death*
Workshop

A Catholic funeral traditionally includes three parts: a vigil (wake) service at a funeral home, the funeral Mass in the church, and committal prayers at the cemetery. We will also cover the Catholic instructions on cremation. The priest, deacon or lay ecclesial minister who assists in planning the funeral rites will work with the family to select the most appropriate liturgical format. Now, you can preplan these rites at the parish.

This workshop will cover a review of the rites per the Order of Christian Funerals Rites Book and preplanning by selecting scripture readings and music selections for your services.

If any questions, please call Ester Perry at the Office

The Ministry of Consolation

Mission San Jose
A Moment of History ...

"The Indians of San Jose Mission have homes of stone which are built artistically so that the mission is a veritable castle.

Although they are in constant danger of attack by the Apaches, a very bold enemy who has dared to enter the presidio even in daytime and roam the streets, they have never entered the mission grounds.

They always attack the Indians outside the mission. The mission has its convent with a cloister enclosed with an iron grill. The church is very attractive...It has a cemetery with the stations of the cross."

THE GIFT OF PEACE

“There arose no little dissension and debate.” Did that happen at work this week? Most of us can recall run-ins with coworkers, even with the boss. Did it happen while socializing with friends? Go easy on politics, religion . . . even sports. At home? Even the most peaceful household experiences a little “give and take” now and then. So where was it that “there arose no little dissension and debate”? That tumultuous conflict occurred among our first Christian ancestors, disrupting the community life of the early church. But today’s Acts of the Apostles shows how beautifully the Holy Spirit, promised by Jesus in today’s Gospel, helped the church achieve a grace-filled resolution. What evolved was that “reconciled diversity,” often encouraged by Pope Francis and even envisioned in today’s Revelation passage; and a wondrous experience of Jesus’ promised Gospel gift: “Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you.”

Coffee With The Saints

All women of our Parish Community are invited to join us for prayer and fellowship at our next monthly gathering, to be held on Sat., JUN 1, from 8:30 – 10:00 a.m. in the Parish Center. We look forward to seeing you. For more info. call, Rosemary Jimenez (210) 912-4152.

Thank you to the Bible Journaling Group for building the Heart next to San Juan Chapel.

Tourists and parishioners have dropped by to take pictures and praise the art project.

This is a good example of devotion for our Lord and for the love of our church.

- Sunday: Sixth Sunday of Easter
- Monday: St. Augustine of Canterbury; Memorial Day
- Wednesday: St. Paul VI
- Friday: Visitation of the Blessed Virgin Mary
- Saturday: St. Justin; First Saturday

May the Lord bless and keep them!

On this Memorial Day, I am thankful for the sacrifice so many throughout our history have made, for the men and women who made the ultimate sacrifice and for their families who had to carry on without them. It is a sacrifice that is easy to forget. For those who have it, freedom is like oxygen. It's something we just have. Many will not understand just how precious either is until they are at risk of being taken away. There are encroachments being made on our freedoms right now by those who think they know better. This is a conversation for another time. Today I remember a sacrifice made and a debt I cannot repay. Today I pray for the God of heaven to bless the families of those who have lost loved ones while serving our great nation. I pray for Him to bless and comfort the walking wounded who are still with us, and bless their families as well. It is also my prayer that we remember their sacrifice and the precious gift of freedom every day, not just once a year or when they are in danger of being taken away.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Why is it still Easter? The lilies have long since faded. The roots of our tradition of fifty days of rejoicing from Easter to Pentecost lie in the seven-day rhythm of the Jewish week, drawn from the six days of creation plus a Sabbath day. A favorite name for the Lord's Day among our ancestors in the faith was "The Eighth Day," meaning that in Christ a breakthrough to a new humanity was achieved. With that inner architecture, it makes sense to see Pentecost as a week of weeks, forty-nine days plus one, again signaling that a new age has begun in Christ and the outpouring of his Spirit. The Jewish appreciation for Pentecost gave rise to the Jubilee year, the fiftieth year, when debts were released and prisoners set free. Today, the character of our Easter Sundays is conveyed by joyful Alleluias and the rite of sprinkling at Mass. Long ago, people expressed this joy by suspending all rules of fasting and by never kneeling at liturgy.

These customs all point to our conviction that time is holy. There is an elegant balance to the Christian year: forty days of Lenten fast and discipline give way to fifty days of unrestrained rejoicing. That's why it is still Easter!
