

32nd Annual Catholic Conference

Talleres: Ronda C: 3:00 - 4:15 pm

CS-27 Cremación en la Diócesis de Victoria; Respuestas a Preguntas Ardientes

Por Deacono E. Molina

¿Permite la Iglesia la cremación del cuerpo? ¿Cuál es el método adecuado para la disposición final de los restos cremados? Estas preguntas y más serán respondidas en este taller. Como cristianos, profesamos la fe en la encarnación de la Palabra hecha carne y en su resurrección corporal, la cual compartiremos en el último día. Nos recuerda las palabras de San Pablo: ¿No saben ustedes que su cuerpo es templo del Espíritu Santo que Dios les ha dado, y que el Espíritu Santo vive en ustedes? Ustedes no son sus propios dueños, porque Dios los ha comprado. Por eso deben honrar a Dios en su cuerpo.” (1 Corintios 6: 19-20)

CS-28 Abrazando la Familia de Dios en la Carcel

Por H. Silva

Estuve en la cárcel y me fuiste a ver... En verdad te digo, que siempre que lo hiciste con alguno de estos más pequeños que son mis hermanos, lo hiciste conmigo. (Mateo 25:36,40) Las personas en la prisión continúan siendo personas, hechas a imagen y semejanza de Dios. No importa lo que una persona haya hecho, ellos merecen la oportunidad de escuchar la Palabra de Dios y encontrar la verdad en el mensaje de Cristo.

Round C: 3:00 - 4:15 pm

C-29 Ask the Bishop

by Bishop B. Cahill

Do you have a question about Church teaching, Vatican II, the Bible, Sacraments, etc.? In this workshop, Bishop Brendan Cahill, will offer answers and/or an explanation to questions that participants ask.

C-30 What's in Your Backpack

by C. Katra (Sponsored by Loyola Press)

Adaptive catechesis requires that we have an assortment of instructional strategies and best practices available to successfully serve a variety of learners; e.g., autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, dyslexia. Come fill your “backpack” with practical tips and tools to be the best catechist you can be!

C-31 Listening to the NEEDS of Parents

by Sr. M. Garriaga

As a parish leader, what can you do to listen to the needs of families? Come find ways to start that conversation and to explore a variety of resources and ideas. This will be an open forum to brainstorm in hopes to leave with workable ideas for your programs.

C-32 RCIA Rites: What We Need to Know

by L. Krehmeier

*The rites are the heart and the power of the initiation journey for the catechumens and candidates as well as for the Christian assembly. In this session we will examine the purpose and dynamics of the major initiation rites. Please bring a copy of the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, USCCB (copies will be available for purchase). *It is recommended that RCIA team members attend workshops B-21 and C-30 to get a thorough overview of the RCIA and the Rites.*

C-33 Liturgical Catechesis w/Children and Youth

by B. Garcia-Luense

This workshop explores the relationship between liturgy and catechesis for children & youth and examines some practical considerations for each. Topics include: theological presuppositions regarding young people and prayer, key principals in planning prayer with children, prayer as a vehicle for creating and exploring culture and identity, and helpful resources in planning and executing prayer with children and youth.

C-34 Nurturing Faith Life in the Family

by Sr. R. Haas

See A-12 for complete description of this workshop.

C-35 Remember to Put on Your Oxygen Mask First

by G. Janecka & V. Dubourdieu

Whether it's taking care of family or loved ones or those entrusted to us through ministry, prioritizing our own self-care is non-negotiable! Join counselors from the Emmaus Center as they explore strategies to promote proper self-care and balance in your own life, in order to bring forth your best self when ministering to others.

C-36 Exploring a Consistent Ethic of Life with Adolescent Strategies & Perspectives

by J. Fritsch

This workshop will explore new strategies for educating teens and young adults about pro-life issues in light of current cultural trends; particular emphasis will be given to questions of vocation, human dignity and perspectives on pro-life vs. social justice issues.

C-37 Proclaiming the Word of God: Preparing Well

by S. Higgins

The proclamation of the Word of God is a vital ministry in the church, for through it, we grow in wisdom and faith. How can I prepare so that the Word of God can reach the hearts and minds of the faithful? This workshop will delve into important ways that lectors can improve their preparation.

C-38 Suicide: Not so Silent Crisis

by A. Silvas

Suicide is a word we continue to hear despite our efforts to prevent, guide, and understand those who feel like death is their only way to cope with the stressors that can come in this life. This workshop will guide participants through statistics, possible causes and effects of suicide, signs to look for, how to help, and ways to cope and move forward when a suicide does occur.