MUSIC AT THE BASILICA

Music for the Fourth Sunday of Easter

This Sunday is also known as Good Shepherd Sunday, and the readings and music reflect that theme. The Communion motet is an unusual three-part motet by Pietro Vinci (c. 1525–1584), an Italian composer of late Renaissance music. Vinci was probably born in Nicosia, Sicily. He is seen by some as a founder of a Sicilian school of composers, and served in various Sicilian cities as Maestro di cappella. He was active in Bergamo, in northern Italy, in Lombardy, as well. Bergamo has a prominent place in music history. The large Romanesque church of Santa Maria Maggiore, with which Vinci was associated, was begun in 1137, and has a continuous and well-documented 800-year tradition of music teaching and singing. When the town was under Venetian control, the musical style of the Venetians was imported as well; large instrumental ensembles grew up to support the choral singing, with polyphony using two organs, brass and viols, a sound which flourished in the fine acoustic environment of Santa Maria Maggiore. Vinci published several books of madrigals and church music from 1561 to 1584.

Our Offertory is a jubilant Jubilate Deo for Eastertide, handled in Mozartian fashion. The Kyrie and Agnus Dei at the 12:45 PM Mass are from a rare Mass of another Italian, Claudio Casciolini (1697-1760). From April 1726 until his death, he worked at the Basilica of San Lorenzo in Damaso in Rome, where he was likely maestro di capella. Finally, a note about the postlude: a Tiento is a diverse, imitative musical genre originating specifically in Spain in the mid-15th century. It is formally analogous to the fantasia found in England, Germany, and the Low Countries, and also the ricercare, first found in Italy. The word derives from the Spanish verb tentar (meaning either to touch, to tempt or to attempt), and was originally applied to music for various instruments. By the end of the 16th century the tiento was exclusively a keyboard form, and especially for the organ.

Basilica Schola

The Basilica Schola is in session for the 2015-2016 season. We already have welcomed new members, but hope you will join us too! We schedule informal "auditions" during the year for anyone interested in joining. It is a great way to enhance your spiritual life, meet fellow parishioners, and deepen your understanding of the tradition. Contact Joshua, our Cantor:
cantor@oldcathedral.org to learn more. Hear our latest recording, available on iTunes, and find out more about the music ministry at

ERBEN RENEWAL:

Restore Our Pipe Organ!

We are in great need of financial support to restore and protect the Erben. Donations to the organ fund can be made to St. Patrick's Old Cathedral, with the memo "Erben Organ Restoration Fund." Join the "Erben Renewal" Facebook page to find out about music at the Basilica, and the world-class 2,500 pipe Henry Erben organ, one of the great pipe organs of America:

Stained Glass Windows

With great joy, four refurbished windows will be installed this coming week in the sanctuary area, two windows on each side. Keep in mind, that the restoration of the windows is a monumental effort since that tracery sections of the windows (the woodwork that frames the stained glass) had to be hand hewn from hard wood. This had to be replaced because the old frames and tracery were so deteriorated that they no longer could safely hold the glass in place. The remaining stained glass windows will be completed over the spring and summer.

The stained glass that you now see is the same glass that was there before the restoration. The glass looks new because each piece was cleaned and in some cases replaced where there were breaks or pieces missing.

Weekday Masses

As a result of the work being done inside and outside the Basilica during the installation of the four stained glass windows, the church will be closed from Monday to Friday for the next two weeks. The weekday Masses - 8:00AM & 12:10PM - will be celebrated in St. Michael's Russian Catholic Church at 266 Mulberry Street.

HOLY DOORS OF MERCY

The Basilica of St. Patrick's Old Cathedral is honored, with the blessing of Cardinal Dolan, to have HOLY DOORS at its sister church, the Shrine Church of the Most Precious Blood for the duration of the Holy Year. With these Holy Doors open 24hrs a day, pilgrims passing through them will benefit from indulgences and blessings. Pilgrims will reflect on the major theme of the Holy Year – the universal reach of God's mercy – by viewing a display of presepio, crafted in this city of Naples by La Scarabattola.

For those in a state of grace and fulfilling the other prescribed conditions, a plenary indulgence may be gained once day by passing through the Holy Doors. A plenary indulgence removes all punishment due to sin.

Those seeking the indulgence are encouraged to begin a pilgrimage starting at the Basilica of St. Patrick's Old Cathedral where a Prayer of Mercy may be said. The pilgrim then may proceed down to the Shrine Church of the Most Precious Blood where the Holy Doors of Mercy are located.

BAPTISM PREPARATION

If you are expecting a new baby or if she/he is already here, be sure to let us know. Then go to our website and acquaint yourself with what to do next to be prepared for the renewal of your own baptismal vows and the baptism of your child.

Next Session for parents and godparents is:
Monday, May 2 at 7:00pm.

the CARDINAL'S
ANNUAL STEWARDSHIP APPEAL
Sharing God's Gifts

During this year of Mercy, it is more important than ever to be actively aware of the needs of our brothers and sisters in need. The Cardinal's Appeal addresses a wide range of human needs in neighborhoods of the Archdiocese. Many people and whole families are in crisis due to changes in economy as well as challenges that come to them through illness or accidents. In addition, the Cardinal's Appeal assist in the education of youngsters and the care for older people who have become frail, including nuns and priests.

Please be generous in response to the Cardinal's Appeal. Every year the Archdiocese sets a goal for each parish. This year the goal for the merged parish of St. Patrick's Old Cathedral and the Shrine Church of the Most Precious Blood is $47,000. Please pray over this and make a gift that will assist those in need around us. You can learn more about the Appeal at www.cardinalsappeal.org

BULLETIN NEWS –
APRIL 16-17, 2016
MPB'S GIRL SCOUT TROOP NEWS:

Congratulations to the Girl Scouts of Troop 3229. They are based right here at Most Precious Blood Church. Congratulations, also, to Troop 1477 from Riverdale. Both Troops are under the direction of Scout Leader Karenbeatrice Porcher. Karenbeatrice is one of our parishioners. Her daughter, Marieteresa Porcher Allen – a Girl Scout from Troop 3229 – is our very own Altar Server at our Saturday 5:30 PM Masses when she is available to serve. These two Troops have just been awarded the National Marian Award. The Marian Award encourages the spiritual growth of Girl Scouts via programs that reinforce many of the values integral to Girl Scouting. The special work the girls do to attain the award helps them grow stronger in and learn more about their chosen faith. Both Marieteresa Porcher and Mia Gergis from Troop 3229 will be receiving the award in honor of their extensive study of Mary, the mother of Jesus.

Girl Scouts, their Leaders, family and friends will gather for a special Mass at 2:00 PM on Sunday, April 17, 2016 at St. Patrick's Cathedral on Fifth Avenue. It is open to the public and all are welcome to attend.

SAINT ANTHONY NOVENA: This coming Tuesday, April 19th, will be WEEK 6 of our 13-week devotion to Saint Anthony. We hope those of you who have started the novena see it through to completion; perhaps when you come this Tuesday, you can bring a friend and introduce them to your beautiful church.

MPB SENIOR LUNCHEON: The next senior luncheon will be on Tuesday, April 19, immediately following the Saint Anthony Novena Mass. All seniors are welcome to attend this monthly social event.

ST. FRANCIS de PAOLO: The Society of St. Francis de Paolo is celebrating its annual Mass on SUNDAY, APRIL 24, 2016. The Mass will be at 10:30 AM and will be celebrated by our former pastor, Father Fabian Grifone, OFM. Please make note of the special day and time. While there are no longer weekly Sunday Masses, all societies belonging to Most Precious Blood can schedule their Masses on Sundays if they so desire.
