BULLETIN NEWS –
NOVEMBER 4-5, 2017

MOST PRECIOUS BLOOD SENIOR

CLUB: Beginning in December, the monthly senior luncheons will be held in a restaurant/café. It is very likely we will not have use of the rectory for one reason or another, so we will be moving our luncheons. Specific information will follow in the coming weeks.

We want to acknowledge Vivian Catenaccio for her donation of a large number of prizes for our weekly Bingo games. Thank you, Vivian, for your generosity. As mentioned above, the loss of the rectory use will result in moving the Bingo games, as well, or eliminating them altogether. Again, we will keep you informed once we have specific details.

SAINT MICHAEL STATUE: For the past two years, we have held a Mass for Saint Michael 'Michalmas' sponsored by The Sacred Constantinian Military Order of Saint George. This tradition was brought to MPB after the closing of St. Joseph's Church. Our statue of Saint Michael is brought down from his niche and placed on the altar for this Mass. At one point (no one knows exactly when), one of Saint Michael's wings was damaged and was in dire need of repair. Once again, we called upon Teddy Gregoris and Sera Salera to see what can be done. Well, Saint Michael has been repaired so magnificently it is impossible to see where the break in the wing used to be. Teddy was even able to paint the repaired section with colors that match perfectly with the rest of the wing. This was not an easy task as the wings are not just one flat color. There are shadings and different depths of color which needed to be matched, and Teddy accomplished that masterfully. Thank you, Teddy and Sera, for coming to our aid once again; may God bless you always.

DAYLIGHT SAVINGS TIME ends on Sunday, November 5th. Please remember to adjust your clocks accordingly.
