

Updates on educational enhancements made possible by the OLV Auction.

These are the grateful faces whose lives have been touched by the generosity of our OLV families.

Mrs. Goode showing off the new Reading Fluency packet provided.

These young ladies will actually READ the book and contribute when they are in a Book Club in the future! Thanks to the additional books purchased from funds raised at the auction.

Mrs. Padalis has got the whole world in her hands now that she has a new globe to illuminate the minds of her Social Studies students!

The Smithsonian called and asked us to send the old microscopes to them! Future scientists using the 3 new microscopes purchased this year.

Bouncy bands attached to the legs of the desks give busy feet an opportunity to move.
