

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JULY 5, 2015

A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

I hope you are enjoying this Fourth of July weekend. I am writing this ahead of time but I am certain the changes to the Mass schedule taking effect this weekend will require adjustment on the part of many of us. I truly hope that we will all be able to adapt and find the new schedule to be suitable for our prayer life. Mass is meant to be nourishment for our soul and to bring peace into our lives. Changes, big and small, are happening all around the Archdiocese, and the hope is that we can all remain strong in our faith.

Speaking of remaining strong in our faith, Independence Day is a reminder of the freedoms that we enjoy in the United States, but it should also remind us that sometimes we have to stand up and defend our freedom. Of course, military men and women have been defending life, liberty and the American way for generations, as have others in law enforcement and government. However, the way society is changing so quickly of late, certain freedoms are threatened at times, even in ways difficult to notice at first.

The Catholic Church is among the religious families seeking to assure the right not only to believe in God but to practice religion openly. There are some who say religion should be a private reality with no impact on (a secular) society. The Church responds, especially this week, with a resounding proclamation: people of faith have the right to bear witness to that faith! We should be able to believe, live and speak about our faith! These rights are guaranteed by the U.S. Constitution as much as other rights and they are guaranteed for all people. It almost seems that those who are in favor of religion or traditional values have no right to speak out. The only people with a voice seem to be those who want to silence certain believers. In this country, we should respect every person, to be sure, and be able to profess our faith openly.

God bless all of us in the U.S.A..

Sincerely in Christ,

Monsignor Giandurco
