

20TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

AUGUST 16, 2015

A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

As you read this I should be soaking up the sun (or rain) in Ireland. I am visiting Fr. Tony O'Connor, a priest friend in Waterford, and helping out with some Masses on a five day trip. I would appreciate your prayers and I promise you my prayers as well.

This weekend here in Suffern, you will hear a Mission Appeal from Fr. Joy of the Diocese of Alleppey in India. I know you will welcome Father since our parish is both warm and generous to those who make such appeals and for those to whom the donations are destined. You have probably read a little bit about the Diocese of Alleppey in our bulletin these past few weeks but I am certain Fr. Joy will give a more vivid picture of the life of Catholics and others in the diocese there. I think we all know that conditions (economic and otherwise) are difficult in almost every country and every part of the world, including our own area, but I also am certain that we all know that we are asked to do our best to help those in need. Of course, we have to start by taking care of ourselves, our own families, our parish and our Archdiocese, but we shouldn't stop there, according to our means. I was reminded in the readings at Mass this past Monday: "Consider this: whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully will also reap bountifully... for God loves a cheerful giver." (2 Cor. 9: 6-7) The more charitable and generous we are (within our means), somehow the more the Lord will bless us and give us the means to help others. It may take a leap of faith at times, but it is something we are all called to do, or at least pray about and consider. (I can only imagine how Pope Francis will speak about these issues when he comes to the United States next month.)

We pray for all those in Mission lands as well as for ourselves and our loved ones, that the Lord will bless us and guide us always. See you soon!

Sincerely in Christ,

SAVE THE DATE!

SUNDAY, AUGUST 30TH
Fr. Robert Ginel will be the Celebrant of the 1:00PM Mass followed by a Farewell Reception in the Gym.
All are welcome!
