

28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME OCTOBER 11, 2015

A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Thank you for the response to the Sharing Our Gifts Increased Offering Campaign. Many have pledged to increase donations to the parish after Scott Bisig and I spoke at all the Masses the last two weekends. There is still time to be a part of the campaign to help keep our parish strong. Whatever you can do is much appreciated.

At a parish where I used to celebrate Mass for years, I remember some people saying, half-jokingly when a blood drive came around, "They want our blood too!" Well, a blood drive is coming around to our school gym on Monday, October 12 and we do need your blood. Actually, it is not exclusively for parishioners for whom we ask for blood. The blood helps to supply Good Samaritan Hospital and the entire surrounding region. If you are able, donating blood helps many people.

Lastly, the Church celebrates World Mission Sunday next weekend. Once again, we do ask for your financial support for the missionary activity of the Church around the world. We are so blessed in the U.S.A. that we sometimes could forget that some people have nothing and the Church is offering both spiritual and material assistance to those in need. The Church asks each one of us to pray that more and more people many come to know the truths of our faith and to live after the example of Jesus Christ. We can only imagine the challenges that our missionary priests, sisters, brothers and lay people face each day. Sometimes they are in physical danger and some give their lives for the faith. In addition to our monetary support next week, we should all make an effort to pray for missionaries near and far who seek to bring the light of the Gospel into a darkened and confused world. Christ is our light, let us follow him! God Bless.

Sincerely in Christ,

Monsignor Giandurco
