

HOLY TRINITY SUNDAY

JUNE 11, 2017

A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners:

We are well into this beautiful month of June which is dedicated to the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. This is a blessed time of Grace for our Parish as we begin a Year of Celebration for our 150th Anniversary with the Mass and reception with Cardinal Dolan on the Feast of the Sacred Heart, Friday, June 23rd, at 7:30pm. We also look forward to Father Javier's arrival this week on June 15th. He is arriving earlier than usual in order to join us for our Feast Day Mass with Cardinal Dolan. Father Javier has been such a blessing to our Parish for so many years, and this year we will have the joy of celebrating his 50th anniversary of Ordination to the Priesthood. We will have a special Mass on the night of his 50th anniversary, Thursday, June 29th, at 7:00pm followed by a reception in the auditorium. All are welcome.

Today we celebrate the central Mystery of our Faith, the Feast of the Most Holy Trinity. It is the mystery of God in Himself: a communion of persons in relationship - the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit - three distinct Persons, one Divine Nature, one God. The mystery of the infinite God is not something that our finite human minds can fully comprehend, but some of the Saints and Fathers of the Church have tried to delve into this mystery by beginning with the words of the Evangelist Saint John: "God is Love." Their approach goes something like this: Love is not only something that God does, but Love is the very essence of who God is. Now Love is not something solitary, but requires persons in relationship. There is the one who Loves (The Father), the one who is Loved (The Son), and the Love that is shared between them (The Holy Spirit). So, God in Himself is a Family, a communion of Persons in a relationship of infinite Love.

This tells us not only something about God, but also about ourselves since we are made in the image and likeness of the Blessed Trinity. And so, if God is a community of persons in relationship, united in an eternal exchange of love, then our lives should mirror that. We then are made to live in relationships where love is freely given and freely received. We see this first and foremost in marriage and family life, which Saint John Paul II called an icon of the Blessed Trinity. For just as in the inner life of the Trinity the love freely given and freely received between the Father and the Son is another Person, the Holy Spirit, so too is the love freely given and freely received between a husband and a wife united in marriage capable of conceiving another person, creating a Family. How beautifully the image of the Trinity is imprinted upon the Family. Indeed, the mystery of the Blessed Trinity teaches us how we are supposed to be living in our individual families, in the family of the Church, and in the entire human family. May God bless us all.

Sincerely in Christ,
Rev. Matthew J. Furey
