

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JULY 9, 2017

A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners:

I hope all of you had a wonderful Fourth of July this past week. Summer is now in full swing. It will be so good to welcome Fr. Benedict back once again this week to be with us for the Summer months. He is such a pleasure to have around and is such a good and holy priest. Fr. Innocent will be away for a few weeks of vacation to be with family and friends. May God watch over and protect all of our families who are traveling during these Summer weeks and bring them home safe and refreshed. I know it is not possible for all of us to get away, but hopefully everyone will find some time to slow down a bit and enjoy time with family and friends.

On another note, we are blessed to have the Sisters of Life so visible here in our Parish. As many of you already know, this Summer eight of the Sisters of Life will be moving into our Convent. What a blessing it will be for our Parish to have them living in our midst and being even more visible here and praying for us every day. In particular, how good it will be for our children and young people to see these beautiful consecrated women who have given themselves totally to Jesus and His Church. In living out their vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience, they give up all that the world says we need to be happy and are given the unique joy of belonging totally to Christ.

The joy that exudes from these Sisters, and their authentic living of the Gospel is such a powerful witness to the beauty of a life lived in union with the Heart and Mind of Jesus. And their beautiful and important work that flows from this is a constant reminder to us of how much our Lord loves every human person made in His image and likeness, and of our duty to love and care for them from the moment of conception to natural death and at every point in between. May the example of the Sisters of Life help all of us to live our faith more authentically, and to experience the joy and peace of knowing Jesus and living totally for Him in our own state in life.

We all want to be happy. We all long for peace. So many search for happiness and peace in all the wrong ways and in all the wrong places.

Nothing in this world, as good as the things of this world are, can ultimately satisfy the deepest desires of our hearts. Jesus tells us in today's Gospel who can: "Come to Me, all you who labor and find life burdensome, and I will give you rest." St. Augustine reminded us of this when he said: "You have made us for Yourself O Lord, and our hearts are restless until they rest in You." And the Sisters of Life will be such a beautiful reminder of this truth for us every day. May God bless us all.

Sincerely in Christ,
Rev. Matthew J. Furey
