

THE CREATIVE WRITING CLUB AT MQHR 2019 - 2020

---

What is the Creative Writing Club?

The Creative Writing Club is an opportunity for MQ students to craft, plot, and develop their own short story or ten-minute play!

What are some of the benefits?

Creative writing is often viewed as an outlet for self expression. However, it's effects can be seen across all language-based curriculum. Studies show, practicing creative writing builds confidence, thought clarification, empathy, emotional health and a better understanding of the mechanical writing process. Collaboration with other writers and learning to give constructive criticism is another one of the many benefits surrounding this practice. No one is too young to learn and no one is too young to benefit from this wonderful program. Plus, it's a blast!

How do I sign up?

To sign up or ask questions, email me at mike.meadors@maryqueenschool.org. This club is being offered for $30 per student, FOR THE WHOLE YEAR! We will meet afterschool on Thursdays from 4:45 to 6:00. All of the games and websites our students create will be either read or performed at our Creative Writing Showcase in April. I look forward to hearing from you!
