Dear Parishioners,

Last Saturday, the elevator broke down after the 4:00pm Mass, with two passengers in it. Fortunately, they were close enough to the top door that we were able to get them out. In any event, I've reached the limit of my patience with this machine, which has been nothing but a source of anxiety and a financial drain from day one. We are exploring options for a replacement, with the most feasible possibility at the moment being a simple unenclosed lift. If that doesn't pan out, we'll have to go back to a ramp. I realize this is a disappointment and a tremendous inconvenience to those who rely on the elevator, but the frequent breakdowns and repairs are just too much to tolerate. Unfortunately, this is an expense we weren't expecting, so if anyone would like to make a gift to the "elevator/ramp fund," it would be most gratefully received!

Faithfully your priest,
Fr. George Hafemann

Daylight Savings Time ends next weekend. Be sure to set your clocks back one hour on Saturday night!

All are invited to an intensive one-day workshop on Saturday, November 8 to learn HOW TO TEACH AND MANAGE THE SPECIAL NEEDS OF CHILDREN WITH AUTISM, and discover ways to embrace them and their families in our community. The day begins at 9:00am and concludes at 5:30pm. The instructor is Betty Crea Davidson, Esq., who is deeply involved in and committed to the autism community as a behavioral consultant, a special education attorney, the developer of an interactive autism teaching software and, most significantly, as a mother of a child recovered from autism. Betty concentrates her practice on special education law and advocacy. She serves on numerous autism committees, both on a county and state legislative level. Betty is an active community volunteer and was central to creating in her parish a special religious education program for children with moderate to severe autism.

Pre-registration is required; the suggested donation for the day is $10. Refreshments and snacks will be provided; participants may bring their own lunch. To register, please email Danielle Legato (family-catechesis@hvc.rr.com) as soon as possible.
