

JMJ

Dear Parishioners,

Every good Christian knows that vacations are an appropriate time for relaxation and also the nourishment of the spirit through more extended periods of prayer and meditation, in order to grow in one’s personal relationship with Christ and to conform increasingly to His teachings.

Today, for example, the liturgy invites us to reflect on the famous Parable of the Good Samaritan, which introduces us into the heart of the Gospel message: love for God and love for neighbor. But the person speaking to Jesus asks: who is my neighbor? And the Lord answers by reversing the question and showing through the account of the Good Samaritan that each one of us must make ourselves close to every person we meet: “Go and do likewise”.

Loving, Jesus says, means acting like the Good Samaritan. And we know that He Himself is the Good Samaritan par excellence; although He was God, He did not hesitate to humble Himself to the point of becoming a man and giving His life for us.

Love is therefore the “heart” of Christian life; indeed, love alone, awakened in us by the Holy Spirit, makes us Christ’s witnesses.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Father Newcomb
