HAPPY THANKSGIVING

This coming Thursday is Thanksgiving Day already. In our Country this day is set aside to commemorate the Pilgrims, who upon arrival in this Country, thanked the Lord as they shared with the natives what they had.

In the same spirit, let us remember to thank God on Thanksgiving Day for the many benefits, friendships, graces and blessings that we have received. Thanksgiving reminds us of the importance of gratitude in our lives and to share with others. We need on another, and so in turn, we must learn to thank each other as a sign of our love for one another.

Thanksgiving is NOT a Holy Day of Obligation, but it certainly would be most fitting to start the day gathering around the Table of The Lord and give God thanks. There’s no better way to thank God than gathering as His family, participating at Mass and receiving the Eucharist. The Mass begins at 8:30am and Fr. Kevin promises you won’t be here long enough for the turkey to burn.

FELIZ DÍA DE ACCIÓN DE GRACIAS

El próximo Jueves es el día de Acción de Gracias. En Estados Unidos, este día está reservado para conmemorar a los peregrinos que llegando a este País, dieron gracias a Dios y compartieron lo que tenían con los nativos.

Con el mismo espíritu, demos gracias a Dios en este Día de Acción de Gracias por sus muchos beneficios, por las amistades, sus gracias y las bendiciones que hemos recibido. Esta fiesta nos recuerda la importancia de la gratitud en nuestras vidas, así como la importancia de compartir nuestros bienes con otros. Nos necesitamos unos a otros, y de esta manera, la gratitud hacia los demás debe ser un signo del amor entre nosotros.

El Día de Acción de Gracias NO es un día de precepto, pero ciertamente, sería muy conveniente iniciarlo unidos alrededor de la Mesa de la Eucaristía para dar gracias a Dios. No hay mejor modo de agradecer a Dios, que juntarnos como su Familia, participando en la Misa y recibiendo la Eucaristía. La Celebración Eucarística comienza a las 8:30 am, y el P. Kevin les promete que no será demasiado el tiempo que les tomará como para que el Pavo se quemé.

THANKSGIVING THOUGHTS TO PONDER

As you gather with your family for dinner this Thanksgiving here are some thoughts to ponder.

- Count your blessings instead of your crosses.
- Count your joys instead of your woes.
- Count you friends instead of your foes.
- Count your smiles instead of your tears.
- Count your courage instead of your fears.
- Count your years of bounty instead of your lack.
- Count your kind deeds instead of your mean acts.
- Count on your health instead of your wealth.
- Count on God instead of yourself.

PENSAMIENTOS PARA REFLEXIONAR EN EL DÍA DE ACCIÓN DE GRACIAS.

Aquí hay algunos pensamientos que ponderar, al juntarnos con nuestra familia en la cena.

- Habla más de las bendiciones que has recibido, que de tus dificultades.
- Habla más de tus alegrías que de tus penas.
- Habla más de cuántos son tus amigos, que de tus enemigos.
- Habla más tus sonrisas que de tus lágrimas.
- Habla más tus momentos de valentía que de aquellos de temor.

- Habla más tus años de prosperidad que de aquellos de adversidad.
- Habla más tus buenas obras que de tus obras malas.
- Habla más de tu salud que de tus riquezas.
- Habla más de Dios que de ti mismo.

THANK YOU

The Roast Pork Dinner on November 1st was a great success. As always the food was delicious and the atmosphere was light. We want to thank Theresa Smith and her daughter Catrina Dabroski who were the master chefs. We also want to thank The Knights of Columbus for helping with the kitchen prep work, cleaning, etc. Additionally, the young adults and teens of our Parish helped with setup, serving, selling tickets and the cleanup, they are a great example for the youth of our community and we appreciate their enthusiastic service to the Church. While the attendance was a little lighter than usual, due to competing events, we were able to make a decent profit of $775.00. The excess food was donated to the Living Water Church in La Grangeville, who prepared Shepherds Pie and Salad for over 100 homeless individuals in the City of Poughkeepsie the following Tuesday. So, thanks to all of you that helped, came and enjoyed one another.

THEME FOR TODAY’S MASS

The Church closes the Liturgical Year this weekend with the Feast of Christ The King. In the Scriptures we learn about the kind of Kingship Jesus came to establish as he reminded Pilate.

The Lord Jesus rules he sacrifices His life for our peace. As we will hear in the Preface of today’s Mass, he came “to establish a reign of truth and life, of holiness and grace, of justice, love and peace.”

The season of Advent and the New Church Year will begin next weekend.

TEMA PARA LA MISA DE HOY

La iglesia cierra la liturgia anual este fin de semana con la Fiesta de Cristo Rey. En las Escrituras aprendemos el tipo de Reino que Jesús viene a establecer como le recuerda a Pilato.

El Señor Jesús, reina sacrificando su vida por nuestra paz. Como escuchamos en el Prefacio de hoy, Él viene a “establecer el Reino de verdad y de vida; de santidad y de gracia; de justicia, amor y paz”.

El siguiente Domingo iniciará el nuevo año litúrgico y el período de Adviento.
