Reflections for the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's reading from the Gospel according to John immediately follows John the Baptist's testimony about Jesus and his identification of Jesus as the Lamb of God. Having been baptized by John, Jesus begins to gather followers. The first followers sought out Jesus because of the testimony and witness of John the Baptist.

We learn in today's reading how Jesus' first followers were gathered. The first two, Andrew and another man, were followers of John the Baptist. After hearing John's testimony, they became followers of Jesus. During their time with Jesus, the details of which are not specified, Andrew and the other follower came to believe that Jesus was the Messiah. Andrew then brings his brother, Simon, to Jesus. Immediately, Jesus gave Simon a new name, calling him Peter, which means “rock” in Greek.

In the exchange between Andrew, the other disciple, and Jesus, we see an example of the usual pattern for first-century Jewish rabbinical schools. Jews sought out rabbis and established themselves as disciples of a particular rabbi. Jesus appears to have been unique in that he sought out individuals, inviting them to be his followers.

Jesus asks Andrew and the other disciple, “What are you looking for?” This is a telling question, and one that we might often ask of ourselves. John the Baptist testified to Jesus' identity, the Lamb of God, using the framework of the Old Testament. Andrew, Simon, and the other first disciples were looking for the Messiah, whom they also came to know as the Son of God. What do we look for and what do we find in Jesus? Loyola Press

RCIA CORNER

VOCATION

“Each of you has a special mission in life, and you each are called to be a disciple of Christ. Many of you will serve God in the vocation of Christian married life; some of you will serve him as dedicated single persons; some as priests and religious. But all of you must be the light of the world”. (Pope John Paul II Youth gathering in St. Louis Missouri, January 26, 1999).

A vocation is an occupation to which a person is specially drawn or for which they are suited, trained, or qualified. Though now often used in non-religious contexts, the meanings of the term originated in Christianity. The church still teaches that each and every one of us who are baptized has this vocation, this calling or summons from God.

We are all created to know, love and serve God and when we fulfill our vocation we are doing just that. Jesus first taught his apostles who formed the church and in turn the Church faithfully passes that teaching on to us. Our mission is to do what Christ did. Impelled by the love of Christ, believers act on their vocation and continue to spread the good news of salvation to the world by professing, living and celebrating our faith.

We see therefore that the call is not just given to our priests and religious but is for all of us. Each of us must pray, discern and determine our mission in life. The gifts of the Spirit that we have been given, no matter how spectacular, are to be assessed only by their contribution toward building up the body of Christ.

In our scripture from I Samuel 3, today we hear the call of Samuel by God. Let us respond as Samuel did when we hear God call our name: “Here I am. You called me?”

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION

Visitation will be having a Spiritual Adoption. Parishioners will be asked to “adopt” an unborn baby, to name him or her, and to pray for that baby every day for nine months. Then in we will hold a “baby shower” for all those who have “adopted” a baby. The gifts brought to the shower will be donated to Birthright in Toms River. Stay tuned for dates in future bulletins.

The Diocese of Trenton is committed to the initiatives outlined in the US Bishop's Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People and to its own policies and guidelines in regard to the reporting and investigation of sexual abuse allegations involving minors. If you have been sexually abused as a minor by a member of the clergy or anyone representing the Catholic Church or if know of someone who was, you can report the abuse through the diocesan ABUSE HOTLINE: 1-888-296-2965 or via e-mail at abuseline@diocesoftrenton.org. The Diocese of Trenton reports any allegations of sexual abuse to the appropriate law enforcement agencies. Anyone with an allegation is also encouraged to provide that information to the local enforcement authorities.

CONFIRMATION CANDIDATES

You may see our young people at Mass taking notes during the homily. These are our Confirmation candidates who, in preparation for this third sacrament of initiation, will "sit at the feet of Jesus" and learn from Him. In their reflections on the Sunday Gospels, they will come to know Jesus more deeply and to learn how to apply His teachings to their daily lives. Please pray for all young people to strive to follow Christ.

Jesus says the Father has set His seal on Him. As the Father sets His seal on Jesus, so Jesus sets His seal on us in the sacrament of baptism, and later, in the sacrament of confirmation. John 6:27

PEACE BE WITH YOU

It has been a practice for many of us to shake hands with our neighbors in church during the sign of the peace. For those who feel uncomfortable with the shaking of hands, an alternative form for the sign of peace maybe instituted; instead of a hand shake, a smile and a bow of the head with the words, "Peace of Christ be with you" is acceptable.

MARCH FOR LIFE IN WASHINGTON, DC

We need our voices to be heard and our presence to be felt in Washington. This year's theme is EVERY LIFE IS A GIFT!

We will be stopping for a buffet dinner on the return trip at your own expense. Cost per person is a donation of $10.00. The March begins with a rally on the mall, followed by a mile and a half march. We board the bus for home at 4:00 PM. Reserve your seat by calling Ellen Conaghan at 732-899-7322. This is a wonderfully uplifting opportunity to join with others who share your belief that life is beautiful choice.

The bus will leave Visitation parking lot at 9:00 am and return 5:15 pm. There is an $80.pp (non-refundable) fee which includes the cost of the bus, the show and a full course dinner. Once again, Church of the Visitation looked beautiful for the Christmas Season. We would like to take this opportunity to say thank you to everyone who so generously donated toward the beautification of the church. Please find the Christmas Flower Donation memorials on the following pages. Your generosity is very much appreciated.

Wishing you all a very Happy & Healthy New Year.

*God Bless,
