On this Second Sunday of Lent the Transfiguration occurs after Peter's confession that Jesus is the Messiah and Jesus' prediction about his passion. Jesus takes three of his disciples—Peter, James, and John—to a high mountain. While they are there, Elijah and Moses appear with Jesus.

In appearing with Jesus at his Transfiguration, Moses represents the Law that guides the lives of the Jewish people. Elijah is remembered as one of the most important prophets of Israel who helped the Israelites stay faithful to Yahweh. The appearance of these two important figures from Israel's history with Jesus signifies Jesus' continuity with the Law and with the prophets and that Jesus is the fulfillment of all that was promised to the people of Israel.

On seeing Jesus with Elijah and Moses and having witnessed his Transfiguration, Peter offers to construct three tents for them. The disciples are terrified by what they have witnessed and that Peter's offer is made out of confusion. We also notice that Peter has reverted from his earlier confession that Jesus is the Messiah, calling Jesus rabbi instead. As if in reply to Peter's confusion, a voice from heaven speaks, affirming Jesus as God's Son and commanding the disciples to obey him. In his Transfiguration, we see an anticipation of the glory of Jesus' Resurrection. In each of the reports of the Transfiguration, Jesus instructs the disciples to keep secret what they have seen until after the Son of Man has risen from the dead. The disciples' confusion continues as they wonder what Jesus means by rising from the dead. The disciples cannot possibly understand Jesus' Transfiguration until they also witness his passion and death. We hear the story of Jesus' Transfiguration early in Lent, but we have the benefit of hindsight. In our hearing of it, we anticipate Jesus' Resurrection, even as we prepare to remember Jesus' passion and death.

RCIA CORNER

SACRIFICE CAN BE GOOD

Regarding today’s readings about the transfiguration - we first notice that it takes place on a mountain and we know that the mountain is where we meet God. Peter’s suggestion that we erect three tents is not too farfetched when we understand that when we pitch a tent we are intending to stay. So Peter’s reaction is one of permanence. God then appears in the cloud. Those who have spent time in the desert know without the cloud in the daytime, the Israelites would have perished from the heat. Without God we would not exist. Without God’s strength and support, it would have been impossible for Israel to have survived one week in the desert. When God speaks from this cloud we are reminded of how he spoke at Jesus’ Baptism. But now he says not just that Jesus is his son, but that we must listen to him.

Moses and Elijah symbolize the old way – the law and the prophets, they do not need tents as they will not be staying. Jesus who is the fulfillment of the law and the prophets will be staying – listen to him. At the conclusion It seems as if Jesus is telling the apostles not to speak until they fully understand. They think a Messiah is someone who prevails over the enemy, so how can Jesus be the Messiah if he is to be killed. In their humanness they cannot see the Messiah coming and suffering. Jesus message to them is that suffering can be good-suffering can save. Listen!

SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

Loving Creator, I am not asking to overcome my weakness, but to use it in some way to glorify you.

Let me be aware of the many ways you reach out to help me today and let me stand in awe of the power that you use in such loving ways.

How has Jesus helped you today?

Holy Water will remain in the fonts during the Season of Lent. It will be removed Holy Thursday (after the Mass of the Last Supper,) Good Friday and Holy Saturday. We will fill the fonts once again during the Easter Vigil.

Our Candidates who are being received into full communion are Esther Ganeshanada and Skyler Edge. Those who are completing their Sacraments are, Marina Flores, Gloria Flores, Maricela Flores and Vilma Nieto. Catholic schools in Burlington, Mercer, Monmouth and Ocean counties welcome approximately 17,000 Catholic and non-Catholic students from many different cultural backgrounds. Parents, as the primary educators of their children, work in partnership with teachers to develop their children's potential in becoming lifelong learners. In a faith-centered, child-sensitive environment, students are taught respect and to value individual differences in others. Our schools' Catholic identity integrates spirituality, collegiality, social justice and academic development as students proclaim the faith in all learning activities.
