

Saint Report Instructions:

- Read book- together with parent or alone if you are a good reader
- Discuss the Saint with your parents if you read it alone
- Write a 1-2 page (typed is ok too!) report. Make sure to tell about the Saint's life and also tell about what you admire about the Saint.
- Make sure you include what you learned from this Saint that could help you in your own life.
- Make sure your name and Religious Ed Grade and Session is on the report.
- Place the report inside the book and turn in to the front desk at Religious Ed.
- Both will be returned to you in a week or 2.

Saint Report Instructions:

- Read book- together with parent or alone if you are a good reader
- Discuss the Saint with your parents if you read it alone
- Write a 1-2 page (typed is ok too!) report. Make sure to tell about the Saint's life and also tell about what you admire about the Saint.
- Make sure you include what you learned from this Saint that could help you in your own life.
- Make sure your name and Religious Ed Grade and Session is on the report.
- Place the report inside the book and turn in to the front desk at Religious Ed.
- Both will be returned to you in a week or 2.

Saint Report Instructions:

- Read book- together with parent or alone if you are a good reader
- Discuss the Saint with your parents if you read it alone
- Write a 1-2 page (typed is ok too!) report. Make sure to tell about the Saint's life and also tell about what you admire about the Saint.
- Make sure you include what you learned from this Saint that could help you in your own life.
- Make sure your name and Religious Ed Grade and Session is on the report.
- Place the report inside the book and turn in to the front desk at Religious Ed.
- Both will be returned to you in a week or 2.