Easter Sunday Reflection

“May the joy of the risen Jesus Christ be with you, to bring joy into your very soul. The good God has given himself to us. ‘Joy,’ said the angel in Bethlehem. In his life, Jesus wanted to share his joy with his apostles, ‘That my joy may be in you.’ Joy was the password of the first Christians. St. Paul—how often he repeats himself: ‘Rejoice in the Lord always, again I say to you rejoice.’ In return for the great grace of baptism, the priest tells the newly baptized, ‘May you serve the church joyfully.’”

St. Teresa of Calcutta

Divine Mercy Novena

On Good Friday, 1937, in one of a series of apparitions to Sr. Faustina Kowalska, a nun in the Congregation of Our Lady of Mercy in Poland, Our Lord asked her to undertake a special novena invoking his Father’s mercy. That novena was to start that day (Good Friday) and continue for nine consecutive days ending on the Sunday after Easter. Jesus dictated to her each day’s intention. Pamphlets containing the novena, along with the Chaplet of Mercy that accompanies it, are in the rear of the Church. Please pick one up and pray it, it started Good Friday. At St. Peter’s, we will conclude the novena with a Divine Mercy Service after the 10am Mass on April 28th. It will consist of Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, recitation of the Divine Mercy Chaplet, a period of silent adoration, and benediction
