SEMINARIAN

St. Joseph's parish is honored to have a New York Seminarian, Michael Daum, assigned to our parish as his summer assignment. Seminarians are assigned to parishes to get a better experience of parish life. While here he will be expected to be involved in the liturgical experience of the parish, serving at times as a server, lector, Eucharistic minister and give reflections at daily Mass. Michael will, also, experience Baptismal training and assist in a Baptism, wakes, funerals and weddings. He will offer the parish an adult education program as well as involvement with religious education and the school. Overall, he is expected to experience the life of a parish and its priests. Michael has just completed his 2nd Theology which means he is in the class to be ordained in 2021. He will be here from May 19 until July 28, 2019.

This is a great honor for our parish, and I ask you to keep Michael and vocations in your prayers.

IN PURSUIT OF PAUL

Carol Perry, SU, will guide you in and through the end of Lent into Holy Week. No one in the New Testament is more maddening or complex than Paul of Tarsus. Tie on your sandals as we journey with him to some of the great cities of the Roman Empire proclaiming his message of Good News drawn from his epistles and the Acts of the Apostles. Join us on Monday evenings 7:00 -8:30 p.m., March 25, April 1, 8 and 15, 2019, at the Linwood Spiritual Center, Rhinebeck. The cost is $55 for the entire series. Please call (845)876-4178 if you have any questions or: www.linwoodspiritual.org

During Lent we are asked to devote ourselves to seeking the Lord in prayer and reading Scripture, to service by giving alms, and to exercise self-control through fasting. We abstain from meat on Fridays but we are also called to practice self-discipline and fast in other ways throughout the season. Giving alms is one way to share God's gifts—not only with money but the sharing of our time and talents. We are called to a true conversion of our hearts and minds as followers of Christ. "Lent is a favorable season for opening the doors to all those in need and recognizing in them the face of Christ."—Pope Francis

(www.usccb.org)

We are glad to announce the formation of the St. Joseph's Teen Group! One of their activities will be to act out the Stations of the Cross for Good Friday.

They will, also, attend the Chrism Mass at St. Patrick's Cathedral on Tuesday of Holy Week. At this Mass the chrism oil used for confirmation will be consecrated by Cardinal Dolan, and all priests renew their priestly vows.

To help fund their activities, they will hold a bagel sale next Sunday at all Masses. Please support them by purchasing some bagels.
