Annual Mission Appeal

Hope all are enjoying a relaxing, peaceful summer and are able to spend a little extra time with family.

Our parish family will be blessed by the addition of a part-time priest, Msgr. James Sullivan, just retired as pastor of St. Martin de Porres in Poughkeepsie and Vicar of Dutchess County. He will start spending 4 days a week with us in the next couple of weeks. We welcome this wonderful addition to our staff.

Updates on other parish matters—the sale of the mission is progressing and could be completed by the end of September.

The old school and convent hopefully will be officially on the market this week.

The painting of the church should be completed by mid-August.

Msgr. Desmond
