

SACRED HEART PARISH

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time
November 15, 2015

Thanksgiving Mass

Our parish will be celebrating the feast of Thanksgiving with a special Mass on Wednesday, Thanksgiving Eve, at 7:00 pm.

Please bring the bread and wine you plan to serve at your family table to Mass so that it can be blessed.

Now Playing: Father Kevin's Liturgy Workshop Videos!

All Eucharistic Ministers, Lectors, and parishioners are invited to watch the newly produced videos of Father Kevin's Liturgy

Workshop on our Sacred Heart YouTube channel.

Father Kevin offers a wide-ranging introduction into the bits and pieces of the Mass and how they come together in one great prayer of the Church. He follows by presenting an explanation of the minor changes in our manner of celebrating Mass here at Sacred Heart along with a walk-through of the changes. All EM's and Lectors who missed the workshop itself are asked to take the time to view the videos as soon as possible.

You can access the videos from the Home page of our website, shparishspokane.org.

Attention All Parish Volunteers:

As many of you know, the diocese has been working hard to get volunteers trained in sexual abuse awareness and prevention and to convert our records to the new VirtusOnline system. If you have previously been trained in sexual abuse awareness and prevention and your initial training was over a year ago, you should have recently received an email from VirtusOnline asking you to update your training by reading a passage and answering some questions online. If you DID NOT receive this email, we need to either update your account (we may not have your email on file) or you may need to attend an in-person training. If we need to update your account or if you are not sure if you need additional training, please contact Paul Macias at pmacias@dioceseofspokane.org or (509)251-5818 and we will get you all caught up.

Adult Faith Sharing Group

We meet every Sunday at 8:45 a.m. in the downstairs classroom at the north end of the Parish Center.

Our Parish Sacrificial Offerings This Week:

Envelope & Plate Offering: $ 9,924.00

Outreach: $ 90.00

Children: $ 17.00

In order to meet our 2015-16 budget, an average weekly collection of $5,713.00 is needed. Thank you so much!

The readings today speak of the end of the world and the coming of the kingdom. The bishops' pastoral on stewardship says clearly that "that life to come" is in continuity with this present life through the human goods, the worthy human purposes, which people foster now." May our good stewardship help us to be numbered among the chosen on the last day!

A Word from Father...

Dear Friends,

One of the constant and most buoyant themes of Pope Francis' ministry to the Church thus far has been his call in one way or another, for all of us to "open the doors of the Church." He means that in a symbolic way; he is really talking about the need for all of us to not just minister to ourselves, but that our humble and loving service must extend to those beyond the Church, especially the most poor and alienated of our sisters and brothers on this planet.

Though "opening the doors of the Church" is a potent symbolic image, it is also one that should be proclaimed in more than words: we should, in fact, actually, open the doors of our churches, so that our church buildings are fluid places, not marked by closure, but by openness, places where people come in and go out freely and often. People of great or weak faith may come in find within their walls peace, prayer, and the presence of Christ himself.

Here at Sacred Heart we will soon be making Pope Francis' words a greater part of our own presence in our small corner of the world. We will be leaving our main church doors unlocked during the week from morning Mass until 4:00 pm or whenever Nancy Kleweno, leaves the office at the end of her workday. We have discussed this at several of our recent parish Pastoral Council meetings and the consensus was strong that having our church building accessible during the day for personal prayer should be a significant part of our ministry.

We will be having several security cameras installed so that the church interior can be monitored from the offices for just an extra bit of safety for everyone. Once that is accomplished within the next few weeks, we will let you know when our new "open door policy" will commence.

May both the reality and the symbolism of these open doors help us fulfill ever more Pope Francis' call to make our church buildings homes where God's children can always find a place to praise, give thanks, petition, and often enough, just be present with the Lord.

Have a blessed and grace-filled week!

Fr. Kevin
