OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST THE KING

First Reading: Ezekiel 34:11-12, 15-17

This passage beautifully describes how the Lord God, as shepherd, will tend his flock. He will rescue those who are lost, bring back those who stray, heal the sick, and “pasture” all.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 15:20-26, 28

Paul once again stresses the significance of Christ’s resurrection in the total divine plan, emphasizing that Christ’s rising means that those who believe in him will also rise after death. Christianity, he argues, is meaningless if it concerns only this life on earth. In the end, even death will be destroyed, and “God will be all in all.”

Gospel: Matthew 25:31-46

With words both poetic and vivid, Jesus tells the disciples that since he is present in all people, whatever they do to “one of my least brothers” they do to him; and whatever they fail to do to his “least,” they fail to do to him.

From the Pastor's Desk...

My Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Three months ago when the Archdiocesan Catechetical Office was looking for a parish in Staten Island to hold weekly classes for Adults who, for some reason did not receive the Sacrament of Confirmation, I did not consider our parish adequate enough. Mrs. Orleman, our Religious Education Coordinator thought we could do it and encouraged me to offer it. The result is 20 Adults from many parishes in Staten Island will receive Confirmation from His Excellency Most Rev. John O'Hara on November 25th at 7 p.m. Confirmation Mass in our Church. What a special blessing it is for our parish! Come, join the Mass and thank God for the gift of the Holy Spirit on them.

This week we celebrate Thanksgiving. What an amazing tradition it is that as a nation to set aside one day in a year to celebrate with family as Thanksgiving Day. On Thursday if I call home and wish them Happy Thanksgiving, they would ask me "what is that?" because they don't have one in India. The underlying philosophy behind Thanksgiving celebration is to offer thanks to God. You don't realize how fortunate you are to be blessed with abundant food, and a loving family. Many people are not that lucky. Thanksgiving gives you an opportunity to express gratitude. Enjoy Thanksgiving with all of its traditions of watching Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade & Football on the TV, enjoying a sumptuous Turkey dinner with the family, preparing for Black Friday shopping madness and other individual family traditions. But more than anything don't forget to give thanks to God for the life, family, friends and other millions of daily blessings of life.

Among the many Thanksgiving Day blessings I have come across I love the following one most. This is what I wish for all my families in Queen of Peace.

May your stuffing be tasty
May your turkey plump,
May your potatoes and gravy
have nary a lump.
May your yams be delicious
and your pies take the prize,
and may your Thanksgiving dinner
stay off your thighs!
