There are 7am Masses still available for May, June and July 2015

SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER
(DIVINE MERCY)

First Reading: Acts 4:32-35

This passage describes the actions of the first community of Christians. They were of "one heart and one mind." They had no rich or poor among them, for they shared all necessary items with one another.

Second Reading: I John 5:1-6

John explains that we become God's children by believing in Jesus. When we love God and concern ourselves only with pleasing God, our faith is strong enough to conquer the evil in our world.

Gospel: John 20:19-31

Jesus appeared to the disciples despite locked doors, breathed on them so that they could receive the Holy Spirit, and gave them the power to forgive sins in his name. Thomas, who was not present, refused to believe without seeing Jesus for himself. Jesus appeared again when Thomas was present, and told him, "Blest are they who have not seen and have believed."

Second Sunday of Easter

April 12, 2015

VOCATION VIEW

Easter: resurrection and new life; to be begotten by God, a new life, shared from a conquered tomb. Meaning for life for people for thousands of years. Nothing more secure, nothing more lasting. Come, tell the story. If you would like to be a priest or have questions about the priesthood, please contact the Vocation Office at (914) 968-1340 or www.NYPRIEST.COM "The World Needs Heroes"

BREAD AND WINE & SANCTUARY LIGHT

The Bread and Wine for this week are donated in loving memory of Robert Blakeslee requested by Mr. & Mrs. Paul Fontana.

The Sanctuary Light for this week burns in loving memory of Robert Blakeslee requested by Geri Setaro.

From the Pastor's Desk...

My Dear Brother and Sisters,

Once again may the Risen Christ be present in your hearts and homes to bless you with His gifts of Peace and Mercy. After 40 days of Lent, with great joy we celebrated the greatest and noblest of all Solemnities in the Church, the Solemnity of Easter. All the Masses were well attended. Easter Vigil had almost a full church. I was little concerned about any one getting sick but God is so good to us that everything went so well. The sanctuary looked magnificent thanks to the Rosary & Altar Society members, Mrs. Orleman and some of our Confirmation children who helped. Thanks to all of you who donated for the Easter flowers in memory of your loved ones. Thanks to Leroy Nagengast, Carroll Florists and Moravian Florists who always sent us the best flowers.

This Sunday we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday. During the course of Jesus' revelations to Saint Faustina on the Divine Mercy He asked on numerous occasions that a feast day be dedicated to the Divine Mercy and that this feast be celebrated on the Sunday after Easter. The liturgical texts of that day, the 2nd Sunday of Easter, concern the institution of the Sacrament of Penance, the Tribunal of the Divine Mercy, and are thus already suited to the request of Our Lord. This Feast, which had already been granted to the nation of Poland and been celebrated within Vatican City, was granted to the Universal Church by Pope John Paul II on the occasion of the canonization of Sr. Faustina on 30 April 2000." (EWTN website message.)

This Saturday 99 of our parish young adults will receive the Sacrament of Confirmation. I was hoping against hope that my brother would be able to come to confirm them. But a few weeks ago he called to inform me that he is willing to come but he has two important meetings to attend for the Indian Bishop's Conference, one on 16th and another on the 20th. He has to travel 20 hours by flight to come and leave the next day by another 20 hours of flight to attend these meetings. I contacted all the Bishops of New York. Finally His Excellency Most Rev. Peter Byrnes agreed to come and confirm our youngsters. I have been preparing with our parish Catechetical team and praying for them. As they receive the fullness of God's Spirit in their life we pray that they will live as true disciples of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Easter Blessings
Fr. Pancrose

Archdiocese of New York

Simple Ways to Pass a Moral Code on to Your Children at Home:

How can parents pass down the wisdom we have and now want to give our own children? Moral lessons must first be taught at home, such as providing opportunities for children to serve others, and teaching them to protect the innocent. Sue Sisto, Education for Parenting Program Coordinator of the Archdiocese of NY, will be the presenter. Supervised play for the children will be available.
