NO GREATER LOVE

By Mother Teresa

“God has chosen me for a purpose. I know it.”

Silence of our eyes

Silence of our ears

Silence of our mouths

Silence of our minds.

In the silence of the heart God will speak.

Silence of the heart is necessary so you can hear

God everywhere – in the closing of the door,

in the person who needs you,

in the birds that sing,

in the flowers, in the animals.

Give your hands to serve and your hearts to love.

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Jeremiah 23:1-6

In this passage, God denounces false leaders who have scattered his people. He promises that they will be reunited and led by one who is just and wise.

Second Reading: Ephesians 2:13-18

Paul explains that through Jesus Christ, there is no longer hostility between Gentile and Jew. Instead, through the Spirit of Christ, both groups become one body and are equal in the eyes of God.

Gospel: Mark 6:30-34

The apostles returned after their first mission and told Jesus what they had done and taught. He told them to rest, but the people kept coming to them. So they went to find a private place, but the people learned where they were going and arrived first. Jesus felt sorry for them and decided to teach them instead of resting.

VOCATION VIEW

When the apostles were trying to reflect on their ministry, Jesus asked them to “Come by yourselves to an out-of-the-way place.” Listening to God in quiet prayer is very important in vocational discernment. Listen to God’s voice in an out-of-the-way place. If you would like to be a priest or have questions about the priesthood, please contact the Vocation Office at (914) 968-1340 or www.NYPRIEST.COM “The World Needs Heroes”

From the Pastor's Desk...

God our Father, we give you thanks for the gift of marriage: the bond of life and love, and the font of the family.

*The love of husband and wife enriches your Church with children,
fills the world with a multitude of spiritual fruitfulness and service,
and is the sign of the love of your Son, Jesus Christ,
for his Church.*

The grace of Jesus flowed forth at Cana at the request of the Blessed Mother.

May your Son, through the intercession of Mary, pour out upon us a new measure of the Gifts of the Holy Spirit as we join with all people of good will to promote and protect the unique beauty of marriage.

*May your Holy Spirit enlighten our society to treasure
the heroic love of husband and wife, and guide our leaders to sustain and protect the singular place of mothers and fathers in the lives of their children.*

Father, we ask that our prayers be joined to those of the Virgin Mary, that your Word may transform our service so as to safeguard the incomparable splendor of marriage.

*We ask all these things through Christ our Lord,
Amen.*

Saints Joachim and Anne, pray for us.

The unique meaning of marriage as the union of one man and one woman is inscribed in our bodies as male and female. The protection of this meaning is a critical dimension of the "integral ecology" that Pope Francis has called us to promote. Mandating marriage redefinition across the country is a tragic error that harms the common good and most vulnerable among us, especially children. The law has a duty to support every child's basic right to be raised, where possible, by his or her married mother and father in a stable home.

At 11:30am the procession will continue to the Church of the Assumption (15 Webster Avenue) for another moment of adoration and benediction. At 1pm the procession will start a third time concluding at St. Paul. A reception with light refreshments will be open from 2pm to 5pm at St. Paul. Prayer of a Catechist

Here I am, Lord.
I am not worthy to be the one to teach your truths, but you, in your infinite wisdom, have called me to this place.
Give me the wisdom to use my abilities for the good of your kingdom.
Give me the courage to be a witness of the Gospel.
Give me the grace to deepen my Faith so that I might share that Faith with others.
With your help,
I will speak your words.
Reveal your presence.
Show your love.
Now and all the days of my life.
Amen.
