THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

First Reading: Isaiah 35:1-6a, 10

Isaiah tells us that when Christ comes, the weak will be made strong, the deaf will hear, the blind will see, and, above all, "sorrow and mourning will flee."

Second Reading: James 5:7-10

As the farmer waits patiently through winter and spring for the "yield of the soil" so, too, must we wait patiently for the coming of the Messiah.

Gospel: Matthew 11:2-11

While in prison, John sends a messenger to Jesus to ask, "Are you He who is to come or do we look for another?" Jesus replies by citing the miracles he has performed for the blind, the deaf, and the crippled. He concludes by identifying John as the messenger He has sent to prepare the way.

From Cardinal Dolan...

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

A Blessed Advent to you! We all know how busy this time of year can get as we prepare for Christmas – with holiday gatherings, shopping, travel plans, etc. Yet we can never forget that the Church gives us these four weeks of Advent as an opportunity to prepare ourselves for the birth of our Savior, Jesus Christ.

Can I suggest one way you might fit some Advent preparation into your busy schedule? Spend some time on FORMED.org, if you haven't already signed up. Thanks to a generous benefactor, all parishes in the Archdiocese of New York are currently signed up for this online platform that provides Catholic content such as movies, E-books, audio talks, Bible studies, and more! There is an Advent study, as well as a new program on the Sacrament of Confession, called Forgiven. I especially encourage you to watch this and prepare for our Archdiocesan-wide Reconciliation Monday on December 19.

FORMED.org is a website that you log into with a parish access code that allows you to view all the content. This means that you can view this great Catholic material anywhere you have internet access. All you need to do is enter the access code that your parish has provided. I know most parishes put this information in their bulletin and on their website, but if you do not know your access code, please email formed@archny.org and include your name and home parish to receive it.

Whether it is an activity at your parish or sitting down at home to watch something on FORMED.org, the season of Advent is an opportunity to receive many graces and keep our focus on what really matters. We just celebrated Thanksgiving, and it is good for us to show our gratitude to God by spending some time reflecting on His great act of love – sending us His Son to be our Savior.

Faithfully in Christ,
Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan
Archbishop of New York

ADVENT RECONCILIATION MONDAY December 19th

Confessions are heard from 3:00pm to 9:00pm in every parish. Advent gives us a wonderful opportunity to preach on the importance the Sacrament of Penance, and to remind our people that this Sacrament is the best way to prepare for the joy of Christmas and celebrating the birth of Our Savior.

FROM OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL and SAINT MARY OF THE ASSUMPTION PARISH

Dear Fr. Kalist,

Words of thanks are not sufficient to express my gratitude to your parishioners for the extraordinary amount of food that they donated for the benefit of our parishioners here at Our Lady of Mount Carmel/St. Mary of the Assumption. When I saw how much food was in our van, all I could say was, "WOW!"

Our parishioners are hard-working people who want to provide for themselves and not be a burden to others. Unfortunately, as hard as they work they often earn incomes that are insufficient to meet basic needs. This donation of food will help many of our families to have sufficient food and enable them to better balance their expenses. The generosity of the parishioners of Our Lady Queen of Peace is a great blessing!

In this sacred season, I will certainly keep your parishioners in my thoughts and prayers. Thank you!

Sincerely,
Rev. Mark Hallinan, S.J.
Pastor
