THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

First Reading: Isaiah 60:1-6

Jerusalem is extolled as a place of glory and splendor because the Lord has come to His own city.

Second Reading: Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6

Paul tells the Ephesians that his special mission is to make the Gentiles co-heirs with the Jews in Christ — “members of the same body and sharers of the promise.”

Gospel: Matthew 2:1-12

Herod learns that Wise Men from the East are searching for the newly born Christ Child. He instructs them to find the Child and to report His whereabouts to him. The Wise Men follow a star to the place where Mary and Jesus are and offer the Child gold, frankincense, and myrrh. They do not return to Herod but follow another route to their own country.

From Cardinal Dolan...

January 8, 2017

Dear friends in the Lord:

At this time each year in January, the Archdiocese of New York is asked to take up a collection to support The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. and the Catholic Communication Campaign of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops.

Founded in 1887, The Catholic University of America is a pontifical university (recognized by the Holy See) that has been educating students from all fifty states of our nation in philosophy, theology, and the arts and sciences. It has likewise educated many of the clergy and religious serving the Church in the United States and throughout the world as well (including myself!). As a pontifical university, the Holy Father asks that the Catholic faithful of the nation support CUA's commitment to providing the best in academic training and religious formation.

The Catholic Communications Campaign enables the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops to partner with (arch)dioceses throughout the United States in producing educational, entertaining, informational, and inspiring programs for radio and television. One-half of your gift to this campaign remains with us here in the archdiocese to assist our own communications office.

Your generous support of these two worthy causes will be deeply appreciated.

With prayerful best wishes, I am,

Faithfully in Christ,
Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan
Archbishop of New York

My Dear Brothers and Sisters,

I am truly grateful to all our parishioners for your generous gift to the parish at the Christmas Collection. May God bless you for your constant support throughout the year to the causes of the Universal Church under Holy Father, the Particular Church under Cardinal Timothy Dolan and our Parish.

Fr. Pancrose

Prayer for Vocations

LORD, JESUS,

We ask you to send more servants to your people. Choose from our parishes, from our homes, from our schools and colleges, an abundant harvest of apostles for your Kingdom: priests, sisters, brothers, deacons and lay ministers. We pray that those you call may never lose awareness of the dignity and need of their vocation.

O Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church, teach to all those the Master calls to say a joyful "yes" as you did at the Annunciation.

Amen.
