THE 2018 MASS BOOK IS OPEN

Mass offering is to be made when the Mass is arranged in the Rectory during office hours. Weekend Masses and Holy Days of Obligation Masses are still $25 and Monday through Saturday morning Masses are $15

The Cenacle of Life Prayer Group meets every Friday at 4:00PM in the Chapel to recite the Rosary.

TWENTY- SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Ezekiel 18:25-28

Ezekiel reminds the people that if a sinner turns away from his iniquity, he will live, not die.

Second Reading: Philippians 2:1-11

Paul urges the converts at Philippi to be united in spirit and ideals, avoiding rivalry and dissension. He ends with the beautiful hymn extolling the humility and sacrifice of Christ.

Gospel: Matthew 21:28-32

Jesus speaks words of rebuke to the chief priests and the elders because they are not believing the teachings of John the Baptist. He warns them that tax collectors and prostitutes, who do believe John, will enter the Kingdom of God before them.

VOCATION VIEW

We cannot act overly proud just because we have responded to God's call. Responding is our duty and source of happiness; serving God with perseverance and happiness fulfills us. If you would like to be a priest or have questions about the priest-hood, please contact the Vocation Office at (914) 968-1340 or www.NYPRIEST.COM "The World Needs Heroes"

BREAD AND WINE & SANCTUARY LIGHT

We are accepting offerings for the Sanctuary Light and Bread and Wine for the week in memory of your loved ones. Any questions, please call the rectory 718-351-1093.

The Bread and Wine for this week are donated in loving memory of Gilda Edelman requested by The Hett Family.

The Sanctuary Light for this week burns in loving memory of Gilda Edelman requested by The Hett Family.

SAINT THERESA OF THE CHILD JESUS

Patroness of Foreign Missions-1873-1897 Feast
October 1

Saint Theresa,
Your life was filled with love for God and trust in Him, and you were a very special friend of Jesus. I pray that you will help me to follow your example so that I may grow closer to Jesus. Please show me how to love when it is most difficult to show love to others.

Did you know?

Saint Theresa entered the Carmelite convent at the age of fifteen. Her "Little Way" means loving and trusting in God as a child. She is called the Little Flower of Jesus.

From the Pastor's Desk ...

My Dear Brothers and Sisters,

A few weeks back I got a phone call from my mentor and great friend Rev. Msgr. Belford from St. Theresa's parish. He told me that he is going to write in his church bulletin about one of our parishioners whom he admires for the exemplary charity work he does. When he named the person I said, "I have the same admiration for him as well as for my entire brother Knights who stand at intersections and in front of supermarkets to collect anything they can to help the poor and disadvantaged of the society as members of Knights of Columbus organization. Msgr. Belford wrote the following in the bulletin:

A person I admire greatly is Mr. Dan Clifford, a Knight of Columbus of Fr. Drumgoole Council #5917. He comes from Our Lady Queen of Peace Church in New Dorp very faithfully every Saturday. He stands for hours at the light at the intersection of Victory Boulevard and Slosson Avenue holding a Knights of Columbus collection can to gather money for people who are mentally or physically challenged. Recipients of this collection include Autism Speaks, Wounded Warrior Project, Staten Island Mental Health Society, Special Olympics. Dan has been collecting on our corner for seventeen years! Many of you must be his generous responders, because he praises the giving of drivers waiting for the light. Like our parishioners who collect on Saturdays at certain supermarkets for our parish's Sister Margaret Mary Food Pantry, these people courageously and effectively give a beautiful pro-life message of Christian charity—seeing every person as someone to care about and to help. Bravo to them all.

Mr. Dan Clifford makes us, our parish and the Knights proud. Thank you for your great service to the community. Also, I take this opportunity to thank many of our people who reach out to those in need through various charitable organizations like Knights of Columbus. Jesus promised, "And if anyone gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones who is my disciple, truly I tell you, that person will certainly not lose their reward." (Mathew 10:42). My prayer today is Lord, as you promised, bless all who generously reach out to the poor and the disadvantaged. Reward them in this life and in the life to come.

God Bless You
Fr. Pancrose

BLESSING OF ANIMALS

Wednesday, October 4th is the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi, Patron Saint of All Animals. In honor of St. Francis, we will be blessing animals at 6:00pm in the Church parking lot. Please bring a donation of dog or cat food which will be given to various rescue groups on Staten Island.

Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi Feast Day – October 4th

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light,
And where there is sadness, joy.
O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek
To be consoled as to console;
To be understood as to understand;
To be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive;
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.
