FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Deuteronomy 18:15-20

Moses explains to the people that a prophet will come from among them, and that they should listen to this prophet's words, for God has told him of this prophet. God also tells Moses that anyone who pretends to speak in his words, or speaks in the name of other gods shall die.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 7:32-35

Paul tells the Corinthians how an unmarried man or woman is able to devote themselves fully to God without concern for the needs of a spouse. Paul explains that God wants to help them promote good and devote themselves more fully to God.

Gospel: Mark 1:21-28

As Jesus was teaching, a man with an unclean spirit came to the synagogue and asked if Jesus had come to destroy them. Jesus ordered the spirit out of the man, who shrieked violently as the spirit departed. The people were amazed at the authority he had over the spirit.

VOCATION VIEW

If you do respond to a religious vocation, do not be afraid that you will not know what to say. The Lord promised that He would put His words into your mouth. But you must be open to Him speaking to and through you. If you would like to be a priest or have questions about the priest-hood, please contact the Vocation Office at (914) 968-1340 or www.NYPRIEST.COM "The World Needs Heroes"

From Cardinal Dolan ...

Cardinal's Annual Stewardship Appeal

A Message from Cardinal Dolan

Dear Friends,

One of my many blessings is to be part of such a strong, warm and welcoming community. I am very proud of our Catholic family here in the Archdiocese of New York. Everywhere I go, I hear not only admiration and appreciation for what the Church is accomplishing, but also how much more we need to do. There is no doubt that the Archdiocese is great in size and even greater in spirit, thanks be to God. This Holy Spirit is manifested on a daily basis in the work of the Cardinal's Annual Stewardship Appeal.

Through the Appeal, we support the men and women who work behind the scenes to assist our parishes, schools and agencies. We provide our clergy with the retirement that they so deserve after dedicating their lives to service. We educate the faithful who will serve our parishes as future priests, deacons, lay leaders and religious. We nourish our children both spiritually and intellectually in our fine Catholic schools and religious education programs. And through our Catholic Charities, we protect the disadvantaged, innocent and vulnerable.

As Catholics, we are called to embrace and care for all in need. My hope is that we are able to answer the call to do more, so that no one in need is turned away. I am depending on you to help me make this possible.

I pray that you will join me and consider renewing your commitment to the Church in New York with a gift to the Cardinal's Annual Stewardship Appeal. I ask not for me, but on behalf of the thousands of men, women and children who are so grateful for your love and care. Please help me in making the Appeal a success.

With renewed gratitude and hope for the future, I remain

Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan
Archbishop of New York

BLESSING OF THROATS

Saturday, February 3rd is the Feast of St. Blaise, Bishop and Martyr. Legend has it a mother came to him with her young son who had a fish bone lodged in his throat. At Blaise's command, the child was able to cough up the bone.

Blessing of St. Blaise: "Through the intercession of St. Blaise, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from ailments of the throat and from every other evil in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit."

Throats will be blessed after OLQP morning Masses at 7:00am and 8:30am.

Prayer to St. John Bosco

Saint John Bosco, Friend of the young, Teacher in the ways of God, Your dedication to empowering the needy inspires us still. Help me to work for a better world, where the young are given the chance to flourish, where the poor's dream for justice can come true, and where God's compassion is shown to be real.

Intercede for me as I bring my needs to you and to Our Heavenly Mother, the Help of Christians.

Saint John Bosco, Pray for us!

The Presentation of the Lord

About the Day

We celebrate an event in Jesus's young life when his parents presented him at the Temple, as was Jewish custom. On the fortieth day after Jesus's birth, Mary and Joseph took their infant son to the Temple and presented him to God. They also offered the customary sacrifice for poor families, a pair of pigeons. But what is more significant is that while they were there. Simeon, a devout, holy man, recognized Jesus, took him into his arms, and praised God saying, "Master, now you are dismissing your servant in peace, according to your word; for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you have prepared in the presence of all peoples, a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people Israel" (Lk 2:29-32). The elderly prophet, Anna, also recognized Jesus and "began to praise God and to speak about the child to all who were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem" (Lk 2:38). Like Simeon and Anna, we recognize Jesus as the Light of the World, not only on the Feast of the Presentation, but every day of the year. We, as followers of Christ, are called to carry his light into the world. Because all candles used during the church year are blessed on this feast day, the day is also known as Candlemas.

Prayer

Heavenly Father, just as Mary and Joseph presented Jesus to you in the Temple and gave you the gifts of their love; I too, give you the gift of my heart. Please help me to come to know you better. This I pray in Jesus's name. Amen
