On-duty the week of November 25 to December 1 – Carol

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time November 18, 2018

The most beautiful sight of all: at the moment of one's death to be immediately present with God. Let the angels sing, the saints applaud, let the heavens rejoice. Another person has fulfilled the vocation to be one with God forever. What can you do to help more people find eternal happiness?. If you would like to be a priest or have questions about the priest-hood, please contact the Vocation Office at (914) 968-1340 or www.NYPRIEST.COM "The World Needs Heroes"

THE 2019 MASS BOOK IS OPEN

Mass offering is to be made when the Mass is arranged in the Rectory during office hours. Weekend Masses and Holy Days of Obligation Masses are still $25 and Monday through Saturday morning Masses are $15.

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Daniel 12:1-3

Daniel discusses the end of the world, a time when the dead shall rise and everyone will be judged. He warns that some shall "be an everlasting horror and disgrace." But he promises that some will live forever, and the wise will shine brightly to lead others to justice.

Second Reading: Hebrews 10:11-14, 18

Priests repeatedly offered sacrifices that were unable to take away sin. But through Jesus' one sacrifice, our sins were forgiven, leaving no need for other offerings.

Gospel: Mark 13:24-32

Jesus told his disciples that many signs would be seen before the end of the world. He explained that the earth would pass away but his words would not. He also told them that neither the angels nor himself, but only his Father knew when this would take place.

Our Sanctuary Lamp

The Sanctuary Lamp, which is next to our Tabernacle, is a sign of the Real Presence of Jesus, the Light of the World, in our Parish Church. In accordance with tradition, this candle may be dedicated in honor or in memory of a particular person or persons, or for a special intention. The customary offering for this weekly dedication is $20. There are several dates still open for dedication in October through December 2018 and the new book is open for 2019. Anyone who would like to make arrangements for dedicating the Sanctuary Lamp should contact the Parish Office.

The Sanctuary Light for this week burns in loving memory of Camille Bochichio requested by Toni Castelli and Noreen Selovsky.

BREAD AND WINE

We are accepting offerings for the Bread and Wine for the week in memory of your loved ones. The customary offering for this weekly dedication is $20. Any questions, please call the Parish office 718-351-1093.

The Bread and Wine for this week are donated in loving memory of Camille Bochichio requested by Toni Castelli and Noreen Selovsky.

From the Pastor's Desk ...

The month of November is dedicated to the Holy Souls in Purgatory. The Church commemorates all her faithful children who have departed from this life, but have not yet attained the joys of heaven. St. Paul warns us that we must not be ignorant concerning the dead, nor sorrowful, "even as others who have no hope... For the Lord Himself shall come down from heaven... and the dead who are in Christ shall rise. The Church has always taught us to pray for those who have gone into eternity. By acts of charity and prayers we help the souls and they have only one door to go through, the door to heaven.

In a few days we celebrate "Thanksgiving", a joyful time for all family members to come together. Yes, we Christians build our love to God by thanking Him daily, because it is the language of heaven, joy of the soul, and essence of family and community. Any family activity is a bonding experience. I encourage everyone to meet and greet a new person after the mass. I am suggesting to different spiritual groups of our parish to have coffee and donuts for all, after the masses on Sunday morning.

It is inspiring to see many young people at the mass, helping with ushering and greeting people as they come in. As they receive the collection in the basket they say "Thank you". That is the language of heaven.

Next Sunday is the feast of "Christ the King". The Church is the Mystical Body of Christ. Jesus our King, continues His redemptive mission through the Church. On this feast of Christ the King at the 1:15 pm mass, Bishop John O'Hara will officially install me as your pastor. I sincerely thank you all in advance for your great support and hospitality at this time of transition. Father Stephen and my mission are here to help you grow closer to God daily and find His peace in your heart. Please continue to say an Our Father. Hail Mary, and a Glory be... every morning for all our fellow parishioners.

Blessings!

Fr. Dominic.

Happy Thanksgiving!!!

Fr. Steven, Deacon Tom, Deacon Dennis and I wish all our parish families a very Happy Thanksgiving. Celebrate Thanksgiving with all your loved ones. God Bless You.

St. Jude Prayer of Thanksgiving

I receive the gifts of God with a grateful spirit. St. Jude, help me to see the blessings that surround me and give me life. I offer you my prayer of thanksgiving. Give me the grace to be ever thankful for the love and mercy of God and the gift of life each day. May this gratitude inspire me to give generously in all ways to others. Be with me now, St. Jude. Linger with me in gratitude, and let thanks fill my heart, washing away all pain and trouble. May I desire nothing except to be in your presence, walking with you in the world to spread hope, love and thanksgiving among all of God's children. Amen.
