VOCATION VIEW

The Lord says: "Before I formed you in the womb I knew you; before you were born I dedicated you." Always listen to an Old Friend. If you would like to be a priest or have questions about the priest-hood, please contact the Vocation Office at (914) 968-1340 or www.NYPRIEST.COM "The World Needs Heroes"

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Jeremiah 1:4-5, 17-19

God tells Jeremiah that he was chosen to be a prophet to the nations before he had even been born. He also promises him strength and protection, providing Jeremiah does as God asks.

Second Reading: 1Corinthians 12:31-13:13

Paul discusses the importance of love and claims that one who possesses any gift, but lacks love, has nothing. He explains that true love never fails, although knowledge or other talents can fail to endure in the same manner. Paul says that three things last: "faith, hope, and love, the greatest of these being love."

Gospel: Luke 4:21-30

Jesus spoke in the synagogue at Nazareth, at first appealing to all who were present. But he knew that they would be expecting him to do the things he had already done in other towns. He reminded them of other prophets who had preached and gained acceptance in foreign places instead of their home towns. This angered the people, who expelled him from town.

Our Sanctuary Lamp

The Sanctuary Lamp, which is next to our Tabernacle, is a sign of the Real Presence of Jesus, the Light of the World, in our Parish Church. In accordance with tradition, this candle may be dedicated in honor or in memory of a particular person or persons, or for a special intention. The customary offering for this weekly dedication is $20. There are several dates still open for dedication in 2019 Book. Anyone who would like to plan for dedicating the Sanctuary Lamp should contact the Parish Office.

The Bread and Wine for this week are donated in loving memory of Michael Sparago requested by Dr. Steven Carbonaro and Family.

BREAD AND WINE

We are accepting offerings for the Bread and Wine for the week in memory of your loved ones. The customary offering for this weekly dedication is $20. Any questions, please call the Parish office 718-351-1093

The Bread and Wine for this week are donated in loving memory of Michael Sparago requested by Dr. Steven Carbonaro and Family.

From the Pastor's Desk ...

Dear Friends,

In a few weeks we will be in the grace filled season of Lent. I have scheduled a few special spiritual programs, to include a parish mission, (see the theme and information in the bulletin). Kindly spread the word regarding our mission, and invite all of your family and friends. Lenten bible classes will be offered by a bible scholar on Tuesdays and Wednesdays in the lower church 7 to 8 pm during Lent. Lent is a special time to grow closer to the Lord. It is hoped that many of you will avail yourselves to participate in our daily Eucharistic celebrations and prepare for the glorious feast of Easter. Priests will be available on weekdays after the first Mass for you to receive the Sacrament of Confession.

This past week was Catholic schools week. We had a special Mass and many participated. Thanks to all who participated and assisted. Our DRE and School principal are working together to have a family Mass on every Sunday, during which children will be involved various ministries during the liturgy.

Fr. Stephen has begun in earnest to train and work with our Altar servers. We have already received many supportive compliments. Please thank Fr. Steve for his input in every part of our parish life and our worship. Our hard-working Deacons are assisting with various sacramental ministries. Dn. Dennis has become very much involved with marriage preparation in addition to all other ministries, and Dn. Tom is helping in updating the environment and administration.

This past Sunday, the school parents entertained us with a spaghetti dinner. Praise and thanks to them! I hope to see more of these kinds of events planned for our parish. At the dinner one of the parishioners told me: "Father I have been coming to this parish for last 40 years, but I don't know anyone." I was shocked to hear that! We need to have a few social events every year, where we can meet and greet our parish family. To that end, I am in discussion with various groups of our parish for coffee and donuts after 7:30 and 9:30 am Sunday Masses twice a month, i.e., the Holy Name Society, Knights of Columbus, Parents Association, etc., can take a lead. I encourage everyone to greet someone new each time you come for the Mass. A one-day parish festival with food and entertainment is another community building idea. I am also in discussions with the parish leadership and staff to have an appreciation gathering for all volunteers who give their time and talents to our beloved parish.

As always, I welcome and value any and all of your ideas to help our parish and bring us all closer together as the mystical Body of Christ here on earth!

God bless us all.

Fr. Dominic.

Prayer in Honor of Saint Scholastica

O God, to show us where innocence leads, You made the soul of Your virgin Saint Scholastica soar to heaven like a dove in flight. Grant through her merits and her prayers that we may so live in innocence as to attain to joys everlasting. This we ask through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, One God, forever and ever. Amen

Stewardship Prayer

*My Church is composed of people like me.
I help make it what it is.
It will be friendly, if I am.
Its pews will be filled if I help fill them.
It will do great work, if I work.
It will make generous gifts to many causes,
If I am a generous giver.
It will bring other people into its worship
and fellowship, if I invite and bring them.
It will be a church of loyalty and love,
of fearlessness and faith,
and a church with a noble spirit,
if I, who make it what it is,
am filled with these same things.
Therefore, with the help of God, I shall dedicate myself to the task of being all the things that I want my church to be.*
