15th Sunday in Ordinary Time July 14, 2019

Treating others with compassion is a mark of a follower of Jesus, weather known as The Good Samaritan, Mother, Priest, Sister, Deacon or Brother. If you would like to be a priest or have questions about the priest-hood, please contact the Vocation Office at (914) 968-1340 or www.NYPRIEST.COM "The World Needs Heroes"

"See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God. Yet so we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him" (1 John 3:1).

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Deuteronomy 30:10-14

Moses petitions the people to follow the commandments God has set before them. He reminds them that the laws are not in the sky or far away at sea, but are accessible to them and meant to be followed if they wish to prosper.

Second Reading: Colossians 1:15-20

Paul discusses the divine nature of Jesus, and explains that Jesus was created before anything else. Everything else was "created through him, and for him."

Gospel: Luke 10:25-37

While discussing everlasting life, a lawyer mentions loving one's neighbor as oneself. The lawyer then asks Jesus, "Who is my neighbor?" Jesus tells him about a man beaten by robbers, who was ignored by both a priest and a Levite before a Samaritan stopped and offered him aid. Jesus asks the lawyer who was neighbor to the injured man. The lawyer says "the one who treated him with compassion." Jesus encourages him to go and do the same.

From the Pastor's Desk ...

The central theme of today's Scripture readings is that we gain eternal life through loving God, living in our neighbors by becoming good neighbors. Let us remember that the road from Jerusalem to Jericho passes right through our home, parish, school and workplace.

This is a joyful summertime. People come and go during summer. That's good. God loves to see his people getting the rest and recreation they need. But don't go on vacation from Jesus and his people. Keep worshiping wherever you are, keep giving, keep praying, keep loving. Make an effort to attend daily Mass if possible, may be one more time a week. God has amazing things in mind for us as we enter this next chapter together.

You know what it takes to run your household. This is also true of our parish compound. Our recent water problems have been dealt with and the lower church and parish hall are again unusable. Once again, I thank you for your continued support. Be sure to take a few moments to notice the beauty outside of our church. Let us appreciate the hard work it takes to plant and care for all of this beauty.

Enjoy the summer and remain safe. May God continue to bless His beloved family – our Parish. Kindly pray an Our Father and Hail Mary daily for all our parishioners and all those who visit us, that we all become Jesus blessing to each other. Mary Queen of Peace, pray for us.

Fr. Dominic.

WHAT CAN WE LEARN FROM THE HOLY FAMILY?

The Church encourages us to turn to Jesus, Mary, and Joseph as a model for how families – and the Church in general – can live today. After all, the Catechism says, “The Church is nothing other than ‘the family of God’” (No. 1655).

It may be hard to imagine modeling our families after this household of saints. But as the Catechism points out (No.531), for most of his days Jesus lived a very ordinary life: working a trade, spending time with his family, and mostly going unnoticed. Yet this often-unremarkable life with his family helped form Him, as well as prepare Him for his incredible ministry. As a boy in Nazareth, Luke's Gospel tells us, “Jesus advanced [in] wisdom and age and favor before God and man” (2:52).

Like Jesus, we can grow in our faith and develop our characters through our daily family life. It is here in the “domestic church,” “the first school of Christian life,” states the Catechism, that “one learns endurance and the joy of work, fraternal love, generous – even repeated – forgiveness, and above all divine worship in prayers and the offering of one's life” (No. 1657).

A Prayer for Family Commitment

Dear God, our Father, you have called all Christian Families to be a sign of your love to the world.

Help us to be generous with the gifts of life and love that you have showered on our family. May we share them so that our homes become true signs of unitive and fruitful love.

Let us never forget to thank you each day for all that sustains us and to look to Christ, who comes to us in the events of family life, in the sacraments of the Church, and in service to the poor.

In all of this, our family becomes a living expression of your Church, a hallowed home of life and love. By the power of the Holy Spirit, may all of us – spouses, parents and children – share, as members of his Body, in Jesus' mission to build a civilization of love.

Father, we ask this in Jesus' name in union with the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

The Rosary

For Catholics, the rosary is a wonderful spiritual tool. It may look like just a string of beads, but no matter how plain or elegant, it should always be treated with respect.

Its name literally means “garland of roses.” Since the rose is one of the symbols of the Blessed Virgin, praying the rosary is said to be like offering a spiritual bouquet of roses to her.

Nobody knows exactly how the rosary was created. For centuries, Christian monks as well as Buddhists, Muslims and other non-Christians counted repeated prayers with beads, knots or stones. Some believe that the number of beads relates to the 150 Psalms in the Old Testament.

Another famous legend describes how Mary handed the first rosary to St. Dominic almost 800 years ago and told him that it was a way to call upon her for help.

The most important thing is to pray it on a regular basis either alone or with your family. The beads will help keep your mind focused and remind you of the greatest story ever told – the life of Jesus and His loving mother Mary.

Come and Join Us for Outdoor Rosary

The Legion of Mary will continue the monthly outdoor rosary on the fourth Friday of each month, June through September, at 6:30pm in the Blessed Mother Prayer Garden. The dates are as follows: July 26th, August 23rd and September 27th. All are welcome. In case of inclement weather, the rosary will be indoors.
