Another sign of Vocation is that your heart is more intent on things of heaven rather than on things of earth. God is everything: the only thing. He died of love for us, we should also die of love for him; if we cannot die of love, at least we should live for him alone. –St. Francis de Sales

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Ecclesiastes 1:2, 2:21-23

"Vanity of vanities." Sometimes we may work for wealth, wisdom and knowledge only to discover that it has been left for someone who did not toil for it. The offering of our work, fatigue and pain, if not for God, can also be a kind of vanity.

Second Reading: Colossians 3:1-5, 9-11

Paul urges us to seek what is good and from God, encouraging us to put our minds on the spiritual. He reminds us that, as Christians, we have died with Christ and are hidden with Christ until his glory is once again revealed. We are all one in Christ.

Gospel: Luke 12:13-21

On being requested to settle a question of inheritance, Jesus heeds us to beware of all covetousness because our life does not consist on the wealth of possessions. Through the lesson of a parable Jesus reinforces this teaching, explaining that those who store up the treasures of wealth and possessions are not the richest in God's eyes.

From Cardinal Dolan ...

Dear friends in the Lord:

In Kenya, most of the population is under 25 years old. The family always serves as the domestic Church – but with so many young people, families in Kenya have a special responsibility to encourage the spiritual development of their children. With your support for the Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa, Catholic families in Kenya and throughout Africa can do just that. Thanks to your generosity, the Church in Kenya has trained new ministers to help families build communities of love and foster a culture of life.

These new ministers help families build stronger relationships with one another and with God. Families are deepening their faith and learning practical skills like active listening and conflict management. As the family becomes stronger, so too does the Church.

Support the Solidarity fund on August 10/11. The Church needs strong families to be witnesses to the joy of love. The Church in Africa needs your help to ensure that all the faithful have the resources to help them grow in our faith. To learn more visit www.usccb.org/africa.

With this letter, I invite you to be as generous as you possibly can be in making a sacrificial offering to this crucially important and necessary ministry of the Church.

With gratitude and prayerful best wishes, I am,

Faithfully in Christ,
+Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan
Archbishop of New York

Good example is the most efficacious apostolate. You must be as lighted lanterns and shine like brilliant chandeliers among men. By your good example and your words, animate others to know and love God.

An Open Heart

The next time you go to Mass, listen to the Word with an open heart. Take home with you one word, one phrase, one particular thought to keep in your mind and nourish in your heart: this is one way to keep the presence of Jesus alive within you and help bring you closer to him. At the Liturgy of the Word you can pray: Here I am, Lord. What are you saying to me? Help me to hear and embrace your word! Help me take your word to my heart. My heart is open to receive your inspiration!
