THE 2020 MASS BOOK IS OPEN

Mass offering is to be made when the Mass is arranged in the Rectory during office hours.
Weekend Masses and Holy Days of Obligation Masses are still $25 and Monday through Saturday morning Masses are $15.

22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time Sept. 1, 2019

Jesus keeps saying, "Let go. Come, follow me." If your pride is holding you back, or if you're looking for exaltation, let go. Come, follow His way. If you would like to be a priest or have questions about the priesthood, please contact the Vocation Office at (914) 968-1340 or www.NYPRIEST.COM "The World Needs Heroes"

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Sirach 3:17-18, 20, 28-29

Those who are humble will find favor with God. Everyone should realize that there is much we can learn from each other. Even the most knowledgeable people need to be humble enough to know that they can still learn from others.

Second Reading: Hebrews 12:18-19, 22-24a

The Hebrews are informed that they are not approaching an untouchable mountain etched with gloom and fear. Rather, they have neared "the city of the living God, Jerusalem." The Hebrews have approached a joyful gathering of angels, God our judge, and Jesus, who brought us a new covenant.

Gospel: Luke 14:1, 7-14

Jesus went to share a meal with one of the leading Pharisees when he noticed other guests competing for places of honor at the table. He warned that a guest who takes the place of honor may be asked to move to the lowest place. Yet a guest who takes the lowest place is honored when a better position is offered by their host. He then added, "He who humbles himself will be exalted."

From the Pastor's Desk ...

The scriptures passages of this weekend invites us for true humility which leads to a generous and blessed sharing with the needy. The readings also warn us against all forms of pride and self-glorification. They present humility not only as a virtue but also as a means of opening our hearts, our minds and our hands to the poor, the needy, the disadvantaged and the marginalized people in our society – a personal responsibility for every authentic Christian. Today's Gospel warns us against all forms of pride and self-glorification.

The feast of the Nativity of blessed Mary is celebrated on September 8th. As we honor her and admire her, let her yes to God inspire and motivate us all. Happy birthday to all who celebrate their birthdays this Month.

Blessings to our students going off to college, and those entering our schools. May God bless the students, teachers, and their families, especially young parents with children entering school for the first time.

I hear joyful comments about the flowers around the Church! Many thanks to our leadership and dedicated staff for their hard work for our parish and continue working on programs such as online giving, security cameras, and building repairs.

I humbly ask you to be missionaries of Jesus in the next couple of weeks spreading word of our upcoming spiritual events with Julianne Stanz and Fr. Kevin MacDonald. These days will be an enriching experience for all of us. Please spread the word and bring your family, friends, and neighbors. Thank you for being a joyful missionary of Jesus.

Thank you for your generosity, love and blessings for all our parish family.

May God continue to bless His beloved family- our Parish. Kindly continue to pray an Our Father and Hail Mary daily for all our parishioners and all those who visit us, that we all become Jesus blessing to each other. Mary Queen of Peace pray for us.

Fr. Dominic
