THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

READINGS FOR SUNDAY

VOL. 34 NO. 47

NOVEMBER 18, 2018

First Reading: Daniel 12:1-3

Daniel discusses the end of the world, a time when the dead shall rise and everyone will be judged. He warns that some shall "be an everlasting horror and disgrace." But he promises that some will live forever, and the wise will shine brightly to lead others to justice.

Second Reading: Hebrews 10:11-14, 18

Priests repeatedly offered sacrifices that were unable to take away sin. But through Jesus' one sacrifice, our sins were forgiven, leaving no need for other offerings.

Gospel: Mark 13:24-32

Jesus told his disciples that many signs would be seen before the end of the world. He explained that the earth would pass away but his words would not. He also told them that neither the angels nor himself, but only his Father knew when this would take place.

READINGS FOR NEXT SUNDAY
Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Clement

(d. 101) November 29th

Clement of Rome was the third successor of Saint Peter, reigning as pope during the last decade of the first century. He's known as one of the Church's five "Apostolic Fathers," those who provided a direct link between the Apostles and later generations of Church Fathers.

Clement's First Epistle to the Corinthians was preserved and widely read in the early Church. This letter from the bishop of Rome to the Church in Corinth concerns a split that alienated a large number of the laity from the clergy. Deploring the unauthorized and unjustifiable division in the Corinthian community, Clement urged charity to heal the rift.

Reflection: Today many in the Church experience polarization regarding worship, how we speak of God, and other issues. We'd do well to take to heart the exhortation from Clement's Epistle: "Charity unites us to God. It knows no schism, does not rebel, does all things in concord. In charity all the elect of God have been made perfect."

Rome's Basilica of St. Clement, one of the city's earliest parish churches, is probably built on the site of Clement's home. History tells us that Pope Clement was martyred either in the year 99 or in 101.

WOULD YOU MAKE A SIMPLE PRAYER COMMITMENT FOR A 1st HOLY COMMUNION OR CONFIRMATION CANDIDATE?

St. Patrick's has 113 children who are candidates to receive First Holy Communion or Confirmation in the Spring of 2019. We're asking interested parishioners to take the name of a 1st Holy Communion or Confirmation candidate from the basket in the back of the church and to keep that child and the child's family in your prayers for the next six months. Your prayers can make a difference in the life of this child and their family as they prepare to receive their sacrament. For those willing to make this commitment, your prayers are all that are needed. Thank you!
