THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jeremiah 31:7-7 The blind and the lame I will bring back.

Psalm 126 "The Lord has done great things for us: we are filled with joy."

Hebrews 5:1-6 You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.

Mark 10:46-52 Master, I want to see.

How often have we longed to be healed by the Lord, only to hesitate to ask because of a sense of our unworthiness? Today's Gospel is a sign of encouragement for us, as Jesus hears and heals Bartimaeus, whose name means "son of the unclean one." Just as he heard those around him say, "Take courage; get up, Jesus is calling you," let us hear those words today and be encouraged to do the same.

OFFICE OF THE VICAR GENERAL-ARCHDIOCESE OF NEW YORK:

Anyone who needs to report an alleged incident of sexual abuse of a minor by a priest, deacon, religious, or lay person serving in the Archdiocese of New York is asked to contact Sr. Eileen Clifford, O.P. at 212-371-1000 x 2949 or Deacon George J. Coppola at 917-861-1762. Both may also be reached via email at victimassistance@archny.org. Information can also be found on the Archdiocesan website, www.archny.org. Dear Parishioners:

Saint Eugene Property Update: As stated in last week's bulletin we have to address many issues which need to be done ASAP.

In the church offices and meeting rooms, the fire extinguishers have all been filled or replaced and all of the emergency lights have been repaired or replaced.

Not only was this an issue for the staff but for every organization that uses the meeting rooms on a daily basis. As requested by the Archdiocesan Building Company, Aramark, we have placed tarps on all of the air conditioners on the flat roof of the church so that we can prevent the water coming into the church ceiling through the rotted air conditioner pans. Also we now have a service contract with DP. Wolff Inc., they are service and mechanical contractors for heating and air conditioning. The issue of replacing the roof is in process with them and I will keep you updated on this and all other issues and we progress.

Religious Education: We have just completed our third week of Religious Education and it has been wonderful. We have great students who are eager to learn and dedicated catechists teaching our students the faith. The new system of using one doorway and one hallway is working very well. Safe Environment procedures are in effect. Again, the safety of our children and staff comes first always.

Church Ministries: We are in need of Lectors and Extraordinary Ministers of Communion at all of our masses. These ministries are vital to our parish. Service to these ministries does not have to be every week. We will have rotating schedules to fit your schedule. The prerequisites for being a Lector or Extraordinary minister is that you are 14 or older, a catholic in good standing, having received the sacraments of Baptism, Holy Communion and Confirmation, believe in the teachings of the church and follow church doctrine and if married, were married in the catholic church. If you are interested in participating in one of these two ministries, please fill out the form below and return it in the collection basket or drop it off to my attention at the church office.

Thank you,
May God Bless you always,
Gina Mastrangelo, Parish Administrator

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion– These ministers assist in the distribution of Holy Communion on Sundays, Holy Days and other special celebrations.

Lector– The lector proclaims the scripture at Sunday Mass and other liturgical celebrations

Beloved of God,

Annulment Process Clarified

We always have to read with a discerning eye all that is reported in the press. The following is the majority of a letter sent to all the priests of the Archdiocese... God love you... Father Fernan

My Brother Priest:

As you surely have heard, on September 8, 2015, Pope Francis issued an apostolic letter, entitled Mitis Iudex Dominus Iesus, which modified the process for the declaration of nullity of marriage (commonly known as an annulment). This document takes effect on December 8, 2015, the opening of the Year of Mercy.

Much of the document refers to specific technical changes in the canonical process for the declaration of nullity; however, I would like to draw your attention to and provide clarification on a number of issues about which the secular media has already been reporting, in some cases erroneously.

First and foremost, Pope Francis makes clear that the indissolubility of marriage remains unchanged. A marriage properly celebrated between a man and a woman is presumed to be valid and unbreakable. The Church continues to defend the biblical and natural law understanding of marriage as a permanent institution established by God. (Matthew 19: 7-9) [underlining added]

That said, with the Holy Father's apostolic letter, important procedural changes have taken place. The new law decreases the length of the process for the declaration of nullity for the whole Church by reducing the number of steps for the processing of a petition...

Finally, the introduction of a brief process announced by Pope Francis involves direct participation of the (arch)bishop and requires two specific prerequisites... With regard to this brief process, the media is consistently reporting a "45 day timeframe," which is misleading because it appears as though the entire process from beginning to end is 45 business days. This is incorrect. On the contrary, the timeframe is merely a time limit for specific stages in a longer process. Therefore, while the process is indeed brief, a petitioner should not expect that a decision will be made in such a short time. In fact, although there are fewer steps in the brief process, the timeframe will basically be the same as the ordinary process because of the nature of the operation of our Metropolitan Tribunal. It is quite possible that the ordinary process takes much longer elsewhere because not all (arch)dioceses are fortunate enough to have staff and resources available to handle all these cases in a timely manner.

The ordinary process and the brief process are both judicial procedures and require moral certitude before a marriage can be declared null.

Lastly, the Holy Father asks that, while safeguarding a just and fair wage of the workers in the tribunal, national conferences of Catholic bishops will, insofar as possible, take care to assure that all cases are free of charge. Pope Francis wants to make the process equally available to everyone. Therefore, after proper consultation, I have decided that all fees involved in any process for the declaration of nullity submitted to the Metropolitan Tribunal of the Archdiocese of New York after December 8, 2015 will be eliminated.

As we go forward in the coming days, Father Richard Welch, our judicial vicar, and the judges of the Metropolitan Tribunal will make recommendations to me about the application of the new laws issued by the Holy Father and the best ways in which we can implement these changes for the good of the faithful of the Archdiocese of New York.

With renewed gratitude and prayerful best wishes for a blessed fall, I am

Fraternally in Christ,

Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan

Archbishop of New York
