THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

1 Kings 17:10-16 The widow made a little cake from her flour and gave it to Elijah.

Psalms 146 "Praise the Lord, my soul!"

Hebrews 9:24-28 Christ was offered once to take away the sins of many.

Mark 12:38-44 or 12:41-44 This poor widow put in more than all the others.

The Bible has numerous stories about widows, people on the peripheries in every age. Today we will hear of two - and both of them give everything they have. Widows in the ancient Near East were doubly bereft, losing both their husband and their status. So for one of them to give more is even more impressive. As we listen to these sacred words of scripture today, what can we hear about the things we have and what we need to do with them?

MEMORIAL CANDLES & BREAD & WINE

Dear Parishioners:

Increased Giving Campaign: Thank you to everyone who has filled out their envelopes for the Sharing Our Gifts campaign. We understand that these are difficult financial times and we do understand if you are unable to assist the church at this time. Every donation each week strengthens our parish financially so that we can pay the monthly bills and work on needed repairs. Again please pray and discuss about this at home. If every parishioner gives just a little more I'm confident we can achieve our goals.

Veteran's Day: Wednesday is Veteran's Day and is a legal holiday. The church office will be closed. Heavenly Father, we thank you for the selfless service of those who gave their lives to protect our nation, preserve our freedoms, and restore peace in the face of brutal aggressors. Grant relief to those who continue to experience emotional or physical agony from their days of combat. Give us a sense of responsibility for their welfare. Comfort those who mourn for loved ones who died while performing their duty to our country. Enlist all who are in our military forces into your church militant, that they may pledge eternal loyalty to Christ, our King, and know His Peace. Amen.

National Family Volunteer Day: On Saturday, November 21, 2015 Catholic Charities will host their first National Family Volunteer Day. On this day they hope to engage families in projects that will benefit the people that they serve. Projects include Home-made Christmas Cards, DIY Tote Bags, and ornaments.

We are in need of coats, hats scarves and gloves that are new or lightly used condition for men, women and children. (If used please have the items cleaned) Also the Friars are in need of paper plates, napkins and coffee cans. The friars use these items weekly as they provide coffee and food to the poor every week. The drop-off location will be the church entrance on the school side. There will be tables set up to drop off your items. The times for drop-off will be before and after the 5:00 pm Mass on November 28 and before and after all of the masses on November 29 with the exception of the 6:00 pm Mass. Thank you in advance.

Religious Education: We are still receiving applicants for Religious Education. If anyone has not registered please do so as soon as possible, as we are into the 5th week of classes. I would like to thank again all of our catechists who every week convey their knowledge and dedication of the faith to our parish children. This past Wednesday we celebrated the feast of Saint Charles Borromeo, who was canonized in 1610 and is the patron saint of catechists. Please remember all of our catechists in your daily prayers.

Almighty God, you have generously made known to human beings the mysteries of your life through Jesus Christ your son in the Holy Spirit. Enlighten my mind to know these mysteries which your Church treasures and teaches. Move my heart to love them and my will to live accord them. Give me the ability to tach the faith to others without pride, without ostentation, and without personal gain. Let me realize that I am simply your instrument for bringing others to the knowledge of the wonderful things you have done for all your creatures. Help me to be faithful to this task that you have entrusted to me, Amen.

"It is more blessed to give than to receive" Acts 20:35

Thank you,
May God Bless you always,

Beloved of God,

Meditations on the Magnificat of the Blessed Virgin Mary... Part 42

“And Mary said... “The hungry He (God) has filled with good things; the rich He has sent away empty.” (Luke 1:53)

Genesis 31:42a

If the God of my father, the God of Abraham and the Fear of Isaac, had not been on my side, you would now have sent me away empty-handed.

Deuteronomy 15:13

When you release a male from your service, as a free person, you shall not send him away empty-handed.

2Samuel 10:4

So Hanun seized David's servants, shaved off half their beards, cut away the lower halves of their garments at the buttocks, and sent them away.

2Samuel 13:16

She replied, "No, brother, because sending me away would be far worse than this evil thing you have done to me."

Sirach 29:9

Because of the commandment, help the poor, and in their need, do not send them away empty-handed.

Jeremiah 15:1

The Lord said to me: Even if Moses and Samuel stood before me, my heart would not turn toward this people. Send them away from me and let them go.

Baruch 4:37

Here come your children whom you sent away, gathered in from east to west by the word of the Holy One, rejoicing in the glory of God.

Matthew 15:32

Jesus summoned His disciples and said, "My heart is moved with pity for the crowd, for they have been with me now for three days and have nothing to eat. I do not want to send them away hungry, for fear they may collapse on the way."

“Please, Sir, I want some more?” Most of us can visualize this scene. Everything is bleak. The clothes are drab. The faces are dirty. The eyes are shallow. The shoes are worn. The only emotion comes from the bellowing, domineering, extremely well-fed caretaker (if you could in justice call him that). And yet in this darkness, there is one light... in the soul of Oliver Twist. Filled with hope, he moves from his assigned place and approached the cauldron and its custodian. The other children and awestruck and filled with fear for Oliver as they are imagining what will happen to him. With courage, He raises his bowl and says, “Please, Sir, I want some more?”

Could any of us send away Oliver? Or as Jesus had said, “Which one of you would hand his son a stone when he asks for a loaf of bread or a snake when he asks for a fish?” (Matthew 7:9) Our Blessed Lord taught just before this, “Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you.” (7:7) So, as we have asked a number of times in these reflections, how and why would Our Blessed Lady say such an opposite thing about God? “The rich He has sent away empty.”

We can see from the quotes to the left that there is a longstanding precedent of God and Humanity revealing their displeasure and at times anger through the action of “sending away.” Some person or another has come asking for a favor, a gift or what they may consider to be “a right” which they think they deserve. But Holy Mary is reflecting the words of King David in Psalm 28:4, “Repay them for their deeds, for the evil that they do. For the work of their hands repay them, give them what they deserve.” Again, we are coming to understand, even beginning with our Blessed Mother, how the belief system and the social order is going to be turned upside down with the arrival of the Divine One.

Let us once again listen to the Christ's own words, “I do not want to send them away.” God wants us to come into His presence... “Come to Me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest.” (Matthew 11:28) God want us to remain with Him, “Martha, burdened with much serving, came to Jesus and said, “Lord, do You not care that my sister has left me by myself to do the serving? Tell her to help me.” The Lord said to her in reply, “Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her...” (Luke 10:40-42) and “Remain in Me, as I remain in you. Just as a branch cannot bear fruit on its own unless it remains on the vine, so neither can you unless you remain in Me.” (John 15:4)

Holy Mary is telling us that many of the labors of the rich have separated themselves for God because they have been selfish or hurtful. These then that come before the Lord will be sent away. Be not like them. Be like Her

Son “Who did not come to be served but to serve and to give His life as a ransom for many.” (Matthew 20:28)

God love you... Father Fernan
